

ATTEMPT TO BURN CHURCH OF COMFORTER

Dastardly Deed Discovered by Thomas Coons, Sexton, Thursday Afternoon—Incendiary Had Used Bible and Hymn Books to Start Fire—Smoldering When Found.

A dastardly attempt to set fire to the Reformed Church of the Comforter on Wynkoop Place, almost opposite from School No. 5, which was set on fire, was discovered about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Thomas Coons, the sexton of the church, while getting the building ready for the prayer service that evening. The fire when found was still smoldering. It was set either Tuesday or Wednesday night.

Through Cellar Window.
Entrance to the church had been secured by forcing a cellar window on the cemetery side of the edifice. The incendiary when he secured entrance had gone to work deliberately preparing to fire the church, and as far as known worked undisturbed and was not seen or heard by any one.

Used Bible and Hymn Books.
The incendiary took the large Bible from the desk in the Sunday school room and a number of hymn books and two large brooms. Opening the door of a closet he placed the handles of the brooms crosswise and piled the Bible and the hymn books about the brooms and striking a match set fire to the paper.

What Prevented Fire.
The fire bug then closed the closet door when he saw the books burning brightly and departed the same way he had entered the church. Fortunately the closet with the door closed was practically airtight and the fire simply smoldered, burning a hole in the basement floor.

Organ Over Closet.

Directly above the closet in which the fire was set is located the organ loft and if the fire had ever worked its way up through the loft the church would have been doomed, and that was probably the reason why the incendiary started the fire where he did.

The closet in which the fire was discovered adjoins the Sunday school room.
Fire Still Smoldering.
When the sexton reached the building Thursday afternoon to get it ready for the prayer service he discovered the fire which was still smoldering. If the incendiary had left the closet door open instead of closing it there is no question that the building would have been entirely destroyed or badly wrecked by fire.

Opposite No. 5 School.
The Church of the Comforter, of which the Rev. W. F. Stowe is pastor, is located almost opposite Public School No. 5, of which Captain Meagher of Company M. is principal, and which was set on fire several nights ago.

The church is of wooden construction and undoubtedly would have made a hot fire.
It is not at all unlikely that the same man that fired the school opposite made the attempt to burn the church.

Kingston Has Incendiary.
That Kingston has an incendiary firebug is now an undoubted fact as the incendiary fires of the past few days have plainly shown. This is the fourth incendiary fire discovered within a week.

The police department is using every effort to run down the firebug.

THREE AMERICAN SHIPS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

Only One Life Lost, That of the Mate of the Dirigo, Drowned Trying to Get Into a Boat—All Were Sailing Ships—Dirigo Sunk on Thursday.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—The sinking of the American steamer Dirigo by a German submarine with a loss of one life was announced by the state department today.

The Dirigo was sent to the bottom at 7 a. m. yesterday according to the state department announcement. The location of the sinking was not given.

John Ray, the first mate of the Dirigo, was drowned. All other members of the crew were saved.

The Dirigo hailed from Pensacola, Fla., and was owned by C. C. Menzies Brothers of Louisville, Ky.

The ship was first shelled, but later was overhauled by the Germans who boarded her.

Bombs were exploded in the hull

which sent the Dirigo to the bottom.

The Dirigo was a sailer and displaced 2,845 tons.

London, June 1.—Three American sailing ships have been sunk by German submarines with the loss of one life, the British Admiralty announced today. The destroyed ships were the Dirigo, Frances M. and Barbara.

John Ray, first mate of the Dirigo, was drowned while trying to get into a lifeboat.

The Frances M. was sunk on May 15, the Barbara on May 24 and the Dirigo yesterday.

All the members of the crews of the Barbara and Frances M. were picked up. The crew of the former was landed at Gibraltar and the latter at Cadiz, Spain.

The Dirigo was attacked yesterday morning without warning. Survivors of the crew of the Dirigo told Joseph G. Stephens, United States consul at Plymouth, that the Germans ransacked the vessel before sending her to the bottom.

New York, June 1.—The Dirigo was a sailing ship of 3,055 tons, owned and built by A. Sewell and Company of Bath, Me. She sailed from New York May 3, commanded by Captain J. A. Uguhart, bound for Havre. Nine of her crew of 31 were Americans.

The Frances M. also was registered at Bath, and sailed from New York on April 7 with a crew of nine men.

Americans in her crew were Captain Charles Pennicill, Bath, Me.; August F. Lang, engineer, and John E. Rogers, mate, of 1025 East Herk street, Philadelphia, and Oscar Tate, Ivan Dale, West Virginia. The Frances M. registered 1,229 tons.

The Barbara was last reported sailing from Port Arthur, Tex., with oil for Italy. She was a schooner of 828 tons. There were six Americans in the crew of eleven; Captain F. E. Laury, J. Johnson, second mate, of Harrisburg, Pa.; P. Walton, Chicago; Harry T. C. Colorado; Thomas Stoker, first mate, and Mrs. Laury who was listed as assistant navigator.

PORT OF NEW YORK CLOSED TODAY TO ALL SHIPPING

Even Coney Island and Atlantic Highlands Excursion Boats Turned Back at the Narrows by the United States Harbor Patrol Ship.

New York, June 1.—The United States navy monitor Amphitrite guarded the Narrows, the mouth of the harbor of New York, today, and turned back all ships seeking to leave the port.

Even Coney Island and Atlantic Highlands excursion boats, bound for points bordering the lower bay, were stopped and turned back without explanation.

Heretofore on the occasions when the port has been sealed, the order has been issued by Collector Malone, presumably on orders from Washington, although he can act on his own initiative in taking such action.

announcement to be made here, that any statement about the matter would have to come from navy yard officials.

The navy yard officials also refused to make any statement.

At Washington Secretary Daniels declared there had been no formal order closing the port, but refused to make any further explanation.

One of the rumors in shipping circles was that an American schooner clearing an American port yesterday had been sunk.

The reported sinking of three American ships and the turning back of shipping, threw a scare into the stock market, where losses of 2 to 4 points were marked up. U. S. Steel broke 2½, to 127½ before 11:30.

Shortly before noon at the collector of the port's office it was said they had been notified by the navy yard that the port had been closed but a second order had lifted the ban on sailings.

LAUREN RESIDENCE ROBBED THURSDAY

Thief Found Back Door Unlocked and Entered House—Ransacked Residence—$125 in Cash Stolen—No One Home at Time.

A daring daylight burglary was discovered Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Harry P. Lauren returned to her home, No. 29 West Pierpont street, and found that while she was away from home some one had entered the house and ransacked it from top to bottom. No silverware or other articles were taken, the thief evidently looking for money. He found it when he broke open a tin box in which was $125 in cash. This box and money was the property of Henry P. Lauren, who makes his home with his son.

Mr. Lauren, the younger, is an engineer on the U. & D. R. R., and at the time was out on his run. His father is employed in the U. & D. shops and was also at work at the time. Mrs. Lauren had gone out for the afternoon and unfortunately had forgotten to lock the back door.

The police department was notified of the robbery and made an investigation.

The robbery occurred some time that afternoon between 1 and 7 o'clock, and what makes it more daring is the fact that that section of the street is thickly populated.

Skilypot Has New Stock.
Patrons who enjoy a voyage on the Skilypot each day have noticed the new stock erected on the venerable craft. It was erected by Chris Johnston, Charles Brooks, James Foster and "Hank" Fisher, who installed it while the chain ferry continued on its voyage without making it necessary for it to put into port until repairs were completed.

Car Turned Turtle.
A Ford touring car turned turtle on the West Hurley road near Stony Hollow Thursday but the driver, G. B. Metz, escaped with slight injuries. Dr. Mark O'Neare of this city was summoned and brought the injured man to the Benedictine Sanitarium where it was found that he was suffering from a cut on his leg and several bruises.

LOUGHRAN WANTS RECRUITS FOR NAVY

Chief Boatwain's Mate D. J. Riley of the navy recruiting office in Poughkeepsie was in town Thursday for the purpose of securing recruits for the navy. Before leaving town Mr. Riley visited Roger H. Loughran, who has been appointed navy recruiting officer in town. Any one desiring to enlist in the navy may secure information they desire by calling upon Mr. Loughran at 74 John street.

Mr. Loughran was one of the citizens who took the civilian cruise aboard one of the United States battleships last summer and while aboard the ship became familiar with the excellent opportunities offered in the navy. The life aboard ship is pleasant and the pay good. Any one who has a trade may enlist in the navy and continue their trade, as mechanics of every kind are needed aboard one of the big fighting machines of the United States. A man without a trade may enlist in the navy and every opportunity is offered for learning a trade which may be continued ashore after his enlistment expires. The navy is one of the finest branches of the national defense and offers excellent opportunities for advancement to the young men.

A number of local men have joined the navy and the recruiting officers are looking for more men from this vicinity. Any one wishing to join the navy may secure information from Mr. Loughran at his office without going to Poughkeepsie where the nearest navy recruiting office has been located in the past.

Field Mass Next Sunday.
The Military Field Mass which was to have been held last Sunday at New Paltz will be held next Sunday. On account of the stormy weather the mass was postponed last Sunday and the same arrangements will be made by the Knights of Columbus for running a special train from Kingston. The special train will leave Kingston at 9:45 o'clock and the members of Company M, the Knights of Columbus and any citizens wishing to attend the service may go on this train. The fare will be 50 cents for the round trip. The Fourth Degree Knights will attend in a body wearing full regalia.

POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS SOLD HORSES

The police department has sold the handsome team of horses used to draw the patrol wagon and ambulance to Joseph Worem of Tannersville. The saddle horse owned by the department was sold some time ago to Elmer Palen, who five minutes later sold the animal to Luther Deyo of Rosendale. The reason for the department selling its stock was due to the fact that the auto patrol and ambulance have been received and are now in use. Efficient drivers are on duty and right to run the two machines. As told before the ambulance is a Ford car with a special body constructed for ambulance purposes, and the patrol auto is an Emerson car turned out at the local plant. With the addition of the two motors the police department efficiency has been greatly increased.

This morning City Treasurer Ward B. Everett sold $30,000 worth of water bonds at public auction at the city hall. There were several men present to bid but only one bid was made when the bonds were put up for sale. They were bought at par by Dr. E. H. Loughran for the Uster County Savings Institution of which he is president.

A Blue Ribbon Winner.
The horse of Ex-Mayor William D. Brinrier, which was ridden in the Memorial Day parade by his son, Grant M. Brinrier, who acted as aide of the second division, attracted a great deal of attention all along the line of march. The bay mount of Mr. Brinrier is one of the finest horses owned by Ex-Mayor Brinrier. It was a blue ribbon prize winner at the Madison Square Garden show two years ago and has been owned by Mr. Brinrier for about a year.

START FOR DEPOT COMPANY IS MADE

Twenty-two Men Take Oath to Serve State for Two Years at Home Station And 17 Others Have Been Accepted—Captain Meagher Administers Oath.

Actual organization of a Depot Company to serve at the home station when Company M, Tenth Regiment, goes into active service was begun Thursday night at the state armory when Captain Frank L. Meagher administered the oath to twenty-two men who enlisted for two years for service within the state. Seventeen more applications have been accepted and these men will be sworn in later. Within the next ten days it is expected that the 65 men necessary for the organization of a Depot Company will have been sworn in.

The men who took the oath in the Depot Company, Class B, were: M. Clyde Crosby, Charles B. Finch, Howard Burhans, Martin Haacklocker, Milton O. Auchmoody, Clifford Scott, George Whitman, Martin L. Spencer, Peter J. Halloran, Gilbert F. Kennedy, Gilbert Reynolds, George Kent, Eugene B. Carey, Ray A. Elmendorf, Arlington Mergendahl, Wallace D. Beatty, William C. DeWitt, Charles N. Behrens.

After Company M moves out, the Depot Company will be in charge at the armory and will accept recruits in Class A as well as in Class B. Class A men being those willing to enlist in active service with the company at the front. The recruits to fill in gaps in the ranks will come from Class A while upon Class B will devolve the duty discharged by Company M in preserving order and doing guard service at home.

With a Depot Company at last actually in process of being formed, it is believed that many young men will take advantage of the opportunity to join this organization and thus prepare so that in the event of being drafted, they will have some knowledge of the duties of a soldier or, if not drafted, they will be part of an effective and necessary defense force for duty within the state.

Kingston has not had a Depot Company since 1898 when the Fourteenth Separate Company left for service in the Spanish-American war and the 114th Provisional Company was formed.

UNCLE SAM WANTS 100,000 MEN NOW

Regular Army War Quota Not Yet Filled and 151 Regiments Are in Process of Organization—Patriotic Committees Asked to Aid Local Recruiting Station.

That the progress of recruiting has been unsatisfactory is the plain statement made by heads of the recruiting branches of the army and navy in instructions to local stations. A telegram received by Private James A. Davis, in charge of the army recruiting station in the Knights of Columbus Home, Broadway, today states that recruiting must be speeded up to maximum intensity.

The advantage to the recruit who enlists now, instead of waiting for the draft, is obvious, according to army men, as the man joining now will be some months ahead of the draft contingents in drill and training. In fact, he will be well on the way to being a completely trained and equipped soldier before the conscripts are fairly drawn.

Fifty-one regiments are now forming at eighteen stations and the army needs 100,000 recruits immediately. Less than fifty per cent of the war quota of the regular army has been obtained in the last sixty days and the intention is to bring home the need of the army in every locality. Private Davis has had the co-operation of the press and the Knights of Columbus but his superior officers are seeking the assistance of all patriotic committees and organizations and it may be that the Home Defense Committee will co-operate in so far as is possible.

The local recruiting office will be open from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. and applicants can obtain all information from Private Davis at the K. of C. Home.

NEGROES STAGE A STREET FIGHT

Thursday evening Sterling Dix and Sylvester Holland, two young negroes, staged a street fight on Greenkill avenue which was broken up by Policeman Welch who placed both men under arrest. Holland was found to be badly wounded about the arm and chest the wounds being inflicted with a pen knife by Dix, who claims that Sylvester used a club. Both negroes were arraigned before City Judge Brinrier, who acted as recorder during the absence of Recorder Lang who was called out of town. Judge Brinrier held the negroes for 48 hours to give Holland a chance to have his wounds dressed. Both negroes are from the south and were brought here to work as laborers on the West Shore railroad. They were remanded to jail without bail to await a hearing at the adjourned day.

Fate of the Indolent.
It is the common fate of the indolent to see their rights become a prey to the active. The condition upon which God hath given liberty to man is eternal vigilance; which condition if he break, servitude is at once the consequence of his crime and the punishment of his guilt.—John Philpot Curran.

RECENT NEWS OF THE RED CROSS

Tonight there will be an important meeting of the executive committee of the Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross, held in the supreme court chambers. It is expected that at this meeting the ball will be set rolling for the big war fund campaign to be waged during Red Cross week, June 18-25.

Completed Work at St. Mary's.
The two circles of women sewing at St. Mary's School Hall have already completed 136 "T" bandages. These are among the most complicated of the surgical dressings and supplies, the belts being 32x3½ inches, and the "T's" 40x6½x3½ inches.

Columbia Shirt Factory Helps.
Acknowledgement is made at this time of the real and practical interest shown by Mr. Leavy, of the Columbia Shirt Factory, and by several of the employees.

Additional Memberships.
The Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross has been further recruited in numbers by the following memberships: Miss Katherine Diamond, representing High School Circle No. 1; Miss Jane A. Millar, representing High School Circle No. 2; Miss Ruth Hogan, representing High School Circle No. 3; Milford E. Douglas, representing High School Circle No. 4; Mrs. J. E. Hardenbergh, Miss Grace Sutherland, Mrs. Fred L. Lockwood, Miss Jean Krom, Mrs. Fred Morris, E. H. Tindale, Mrs. Peter C. Osterhout.

Auxiliary at Pine Hill.
This afternoon officials of the chapter, with Mrs. Reel, chairman of the membership committee, visited Pine Hill and formed an auxiliary in that village.

Insurance Agents to Meet.
Newburgh Host for State Gathering in June.

One of the matters to be considered at the 15th annual convention of the New York State Association of Local Insurance Agents in Newburgh Thursday and Friday, June 7 and 8, will be the proposed appointment of a state commissioner to fix insurance rates on buildings, thereby taking the entire matter out of the hands of the companies for the sake of uniformity. About 125 men will attend the convention, making their headquarters at the Palatine Hotel. The speakers will include State Superintendent of Insurance J. S. Phillips, Fred Cox, president of the New Jersey State Insurance Association, and James J. Hoey, formerly connected with the New York State Insurance Department, and now with the Continental Fire Insurance Company.

Officers of the state association are: President, William H. Hecox, Hinghamton; vice presidents, John Kavanaugh, of Rochester, Edward S. Hawley of Buffalo, C. S. Porth of Albany, James F. Doyle of Oswego, C. A. Cool of Glens Falls, Fred G. Horton of Oswego, Fred S. Burns of Syracuse, Warren M. Gladders of Central Valley; secretary, C. J. Curtin, Rochester; assistant secretary, Albert Dodge, Buffalo; treasurer, R. G. Wadsworth, Hinghamton. S. Carls, of Newburgh, is a member of the executive committee.

ITALIANS PUSHING DOUBLE OFFENSIVE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Rome, June 1.—The Italians are now upon the offensive in two theaters of war. Without pausing in their drive against the Austro-Hungarians on the northeastern front, the Italian forces in Albania have launched an encircling movement against the German Allies between Monastir and the Adriatic Sea.

Following the capture of four Albanian towns near Berat the Italians pressed forward against the mountain positions of the Austrians troops compelling them to retire. With the Austrians fighting in this sector are many Bulgarians.

If the Italians are successful in breaking through the German Allies' lines between Avlona and Monastir the latter's position in the Balkans will be very seriously menaced. The French have begun to bombard the Austrian, Bulgarian and German lines around Monastir which may be the prelude to an infantry advance.

Operations against the Austro-Hungarians along the Italian-Austro-Hungarian frontier have been hampered in Trentino and the Carnic Alps by severe storms. On the Julian front the Austro-Hungarian artillery was very active for a while after which the infantry attacked newly won Italian positions. The Italians held all their new positions, which are now being strengthened.

The major operations against the Austro-Hungarians are being carried out over a 25-mile front between Pavia and the Adriatic. The Second and Third armies were employed and in a series of brilliant engagements have captured all of the line of hills that lie along the eastern shore of the Isonzo river between Monte Santo to the Vodice Ridge.

During the past few days it has become evident that the Austro-Hungarians are moving back their big guns on the Carnic Plateau. Military critics believe that the next big attacks in the Italian offensive will be delivered around Castagnarez.

SLIGHT ADVANCES AT MARKET OPENING

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
New York, June 1.—Selling "ex-dividend" with the last quarterly dividend of 14.25 subtracted from the closing price of yesterday, United States Steel was watched closely by traders today. It opened at 130, against 134½ yesterday afternoon, and soon sold to 130½. Early transactions in steel were not so heavy as have characterized its recent boom. American Smelting held the attention of the bulls at the start, selling up 2 points to 197½.

Many of the copper stocks were in brisk demand with inspiration advancing ½ to 63½ and Kennecott moving up from 43½ to 45. American Smelting was unusually active, advancing 2½ points to 197½. The minor steel industrials made good gains with Crucible advancing 1½ to 81½ and Baldwin moving up one point to 64½. Part of the advances were lost after the first few minutes when U. S. Steel reacted to 129½, with similar recessions in nearly all of the other active issues.

POLIOMYELITIS IN SAUGERTIES

Infantile paralysis has again made its appearance in Saugerties. John Lanigan, aged 12 years, being the first victim of the disease which swept through the country last summer. The town of Saugerties had a number of cases last summer. The case appears to be of a mild nature. Dr. Luther Emerick is the attending physician. Dr. Krom, health officer, will require all children who are now absent from school to get a health certificate from their physician before returning to school.

ZEEB'S BUTCHER SHOP ENTERED

Thief Broke in Door Panel With an Axe—Found But Two Cents in Drawer and Took Them—Nothing Else Found Missing.

Some time Thursday evening the butcher shop of Ludwig Zeeb at No. 202 Foxhall avenue, was broken into but fortunately for Mr. Zeeb, he had left but two cents in the money drawer. The thief took the two cents. Mr. Zeeb reported the robbery to the police, who made an investigation. No meats were found missing and it is evident that the thief was looking only for money for he broke into the cash drawer and another drawer looking for cash. Entrance to the shop was secured by breaking in the panel of the back door with an axe. This is the fourth robbery to be reported to the police this week and every effort is being made to apprehend the thieves. The others were in the offices of the Kingston Dairy and Ice Cream Company and the office of the Crispell Company on Field Court, and the Lauren robbery on West Pierpont street.

It would seem that all four robberies should be laid at the door of local talent.

Following the capture of four mountain towns near Berat, the Italian pressed forward against the mountain positions of the Austrians compelling them to retreat. With the Austrians fighting in this sector are many Bulgarians.
If the Italians are successful in breaking through the German Allies' lines between Avlona and Monastir the latter's position in the Balkans will be very seriously menaced. The French have begun to bombard the Austrian, Bulgarian and German lines around Monastir which may be the prelude to an infantry advance.
Operations against the Austro-Hungarians along the Italian-Austro-Hungarian frontier have been hampered in Trentino and the Carnic Alps by severe storms. On the Julian front the Austro-Hungarian artillery was very active for a while after which the infantry attacked newly won Italian positions. The Italians held all their new positions, which are now being strengthened.
The major operations against the Austro-Hungarians are being carried out over a 25-mile front between Liva and the Adriatic. The Second and Third armies were employed and in a series of brilliant engagements have captured all of the line of hills that lie along the eastern shore of the Isonzo river between Monte Santo to the Vodice Ridge.
During the past few days it has become evident that the Austro-Hungarians are moving back their big guns on the Carso Plateau. Military critics believe that the next big attack in the Italian offensive will be delivered around Castagnarezza.

Organ Over Closet.
Directly above the closet in which the fire was set is located the organ loft and if the fire had ever worked its way up through the loft the church would have been doomed, and that was probably the reason why the incendiary started the fire where he did.

The closet in which the fire was discovered adjoins the Sunday school room.

Fire Still Smoldering.
When the sexton reached the building Thursday afternoon to set it ready for the prayer service he discovered the fire which was still smoldering. If the incendiary had left the closet door open instead of closing it there is no question that the building would have been entirely destroyed or badly wrecked by fire.

Opposite No. 5 School.
The Church of the Comforter, of which the Rev. W. F. Stokes is pastor, is located almost opposite Public School No. 5, of which Captain Meagher of Company M, is principal, and which was set on fire several nights ago.

The church is of wooden construction and undoubtedly would have made a hot fire.
It is not at all unlikely that the same man that fired the school opposite made the attempt to burn the church.

Kingston Has Incendiary.
That Kingston has another firebug is now an undoubted fact as the incendiary fires of the past few days have plainly shown. This is the fourth incendiary fire discovered within a week.
The police department is using every effort to run down the firebug.

ZEED'S BUTCHER SHOP ENTERED

Thief Broke in Door Panel With an Axe—Found But Two Cents in Drawer and Took Them—Nothing Else Found Missing.
Some time Thursday evening the butcher shop of Ludwig Zeed at No. 202 Foxhall avenue, was broken into but fortunately for Mr. Zeed, he had left but two cents in the money drawer. The thief took the two cents. Mr. Zeed reported the robbery to the police, who made an investigation. No meats were found missing and it is evident that the thief was looking only for money for he broke into the cash drawer and another drawer looking for cash. Entrance to the shop was secured by breaking in the panel of the back door with an axe. This is the fourth robbery to be reported in the police this week and every effort is being made to apprehend the thieves. The others were the offices of the Kingston Dairy and Ice Cream Company and the office of the Crispell Company on Field Court, and the Lauren robbery on West Pierpont street.
It would seem that all four robbers should be laid at the door of local talent.

THREE AMERICAN SHIPS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

Only One Life Lost, That of the Mate of the Dirigo, Drowned Trying to Get Into a Boat—All Were Sailing Ships—Dirigo Sunk on Thursday.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, June 1.—The sinking of the American steamer Dirigo by a German submarine with a loss of 920 life was announced by the state department today.

The Dirigo was sent to the bottom at 7 a. m. yesterday according to the state department announcement. The location of the sinking was not given.

John Ray, the first mate of the Dirigo, was drowned. All other members of the crew were saved. The Dirigo hailed from Pensacola, Fla., and was owned by C. C. Neagle Brothers of Louisville, Ky.

The ship was first shelled, but later was overhauled by the Germans who boarded her.

Bombs were exploded in the hull

which sent the Dirigo to the bottom.
The Dirigo was a sailer and displaced 2,845 tons.

London, June 1.—Three American sailing ships have been sunk by German submarines with the loss of one life, the British Admiralty announced today. The destroyed ships were the Dirigo, Frances M. and Barbara.

John Ray, first mate of the Dirigo, was drowned while trying to get into a lifeboat.

The Frances M. was sunk on May 15, the Barbara on May 21 and the Dirigo yesterday.

All the members of the crews of the Barbara and Frances M. were picked up. The crew of the former was landed at Gibraltar and the latter at Cadiz, Spain.

The Dirigo was attacked yesterday morning without warning. Survivors of the crew of the Dirigo told Joseph G. Stephens, United States consul at Plymouth, that the Germans ransacked the vessel before sending her to the bottom.

New York, June 1.—The Dirigo was a sailing ship, 31,053 tons, owned and built by A. Sewell and Company of Bath, Me. She sailed from New York May 3, commanded by Captain J. A. Ughart, bound for Havre. Nine of her crew of 31 were Americans.

The Frances M. also was registered at Bath, and sailed from New York on April 7 with a crew of nine men.

Americans in her crew were Captain Charles Penhall, Bath, Me.; August P. Lang, engineer, and John E. Rogers, mate, of 1026 East Berkeley street, Philadelphia, and Oscar Tate, Jean Davis, West Virginia. The Frances M. registered 1,229 tons.

The Barbara was last reported sailing from Port Arthur, Tex., with oil for Italy. She was a schooner of 323 tons. There were six Americans in the crew of eleven: Captain F. E. Laury, J. Johnson, second mate, of Harrisburg, Pa.; P. Walton, Chicago, Harry Tans, Colorado; Thomas Stoker, first mate, and Mrs. Laury who was listed as assistant navigator.

PORT OF NEW YORK CLOSED TODAY TO ALL SHIPPING

Even Coney Island and Atlantic Highlands Excursion Boats Turned Back at the Narrows by the United States Harbor Patrol Ship.

New York, June 1.—The United States navy monitor Amphitrite guarded the Narrows, the mouth of the harbor of New York, today, and turned back all ships seeking to leave the port.

Even Coney Island and Atlantic Highlands excursion boats, bound for points bordering the lower bay, were stopped and turned back without explanation.

Alarming rumors which immediately were passed about were not cleared by the collector of the port. At his offices it was said there was no announcement to be made here, that any statement about the matter would have to come from navy officials.

The navy yard officials also refused to make any statement.
At Washington Secretary Daniels declared there had been no formal order closing the port, but refused to make any further explanation.

Heretofore on the occasions when the port has been sealed, the order has been issued by Collector Malone, presumably on orders from Washington, although he can act on his own initiative in taking such action.

One of the rumors in shipping circles was that the American port yesterday had been sunk.

The reported sinking of three American ships and the resulting loss of shipping, threw a scare into the stock market, where losses of 2 to 4 points were marked up. U. S. Steel broke 2½ to 127½ before 11:30.

Shortly before noon at the collector of the port's office it was said that had been notified by the navy yard that the port had been closed but a second order had lifted the ban on sailings.

LAUREN RESIDENCE ROBBED THURSDAY

Thief Found Back Door Unlocked and Entered House—Ransacked Residence—$125 in Cash Stolen—No One Home at Time.
A daring daylight burglary was discovered Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Harry P. Lauren, returned to her home, No. 20 West Pierpont street, and found that while she was away from home some one had entered the house and ransacked it from top to bottom. No silverware or other articles were taken, the thief evidently looking for money. He found it when he broke open a tin box in which was $125 in cash. This box and money was the property of Henry P. Lauren, who makes his home with his son.

Mr. Lauren, the younger, is an engineer on the U. & D. R. R., and at the time was out on his run. His father is employed in the U. & D. R. R. and was also at work at the time. Mrs. Lauren had gone out for the afternoon and unfortunately had forgotten to lock the back door.

The police department was notified of the robbery and made an investigation.
The robbery occurred some time that afternoon between 1 and 7 o'clock, and what makes it more daring is the fact that that section of the street is thickly populated.

Skilypot Has New Stock.
Patrons who enjoy a voyage on the Skilypot each day have noticed the new stock erected on the venerable craft. It was erected by Chris Johnston, Charles Brooks, James Foster and "Hank" Fisher, who installed it while the chain ferry continued its voyage without making it necessary for it to put into port until repairs were completed.

Car Turned Turtle.
A Ford touring car turned turtle on the West Hurley road near Stony Hollow Thursday but the driver, G. B. Metz, escaped with slight injuries. Dr. Mark O'Meara of this city was summoned and brought the injured man to the Beneficent Sanitarium where it was found that he was suffering from a cut on his leg and several bruises.

LOUGHNAN WANTS RECRUITS FOR NAVY

Chief Boatwain's Mate D. J. Riley of the navy recruiting office in Poughkeepsie was in town Thursday for the purpose of securing recruits for the navy. Before leaving town Mr. Riley visited Roger H. Loughnan, who has been appointed navy recruiting officer in town. Any one desiring to enlist in the navy may secure any information they desire by calling upon Mr. Loughnan at 74 John street.

Mr. Loughnan was one of the citizens who took the civilian cruise aboard one of the United States battleships last summer and while aboard the ship became familiar with the excellent opportunities offered in the navy. The life aboard ship is pleasant and the pay good. Any one who has a trade may enlist in the navy and continue their trade, as mechanics of every kind are needed aboard one of the big fighting machines of the United States. A man without a trade may enlist in the navy and every opportunity is offered for learning a trade which may be continued ashore after his enlistment expires. The navy is one of the finest branches of the national defense and offers excellent opportunities for advancement to the young men.

A number of local men have joined the navy and the recruiting officers are looking for more men from this vicinity. Any one wishing to join the navy may secure information from Mr. Loughnan at his office without going to Poughkeepsie where the nearest navy recruiting office has been located in the past.

Field Mass Next Sunday.
The Military Field Mass which was to have been held last Sunday at New Paltz will be held next Sunday. On account of the stormy weather the mass was postponed last Sunday and the same arrangements will be made by the Knights of Columbus for running a special train from Kingston. The special train will leave Kingston at 9:45 o'clock and the members of Company M, the Knights of Columbus and any citizens wishing to attend the services may go by this train. The fare will be 50¢. It was a blue ribbon prize winner at the Madison Square Garden show two years ago and has been owned by Mr. Brinrier for about a year.

POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS SOLD HORSES

The police department has sold the handsome team of horses used to draw the patrol wagon and ambulance to Joseph Worem of Tannersville. The saddle horse owned by the department was sold some time ago to Elmer Palen, who five minutes later sold the animal to Luther Devo of Rosendale. The reason for the department selling its stock was due to the fact that the auto patrol and ambulance have been received and are now in use. Licensed drivers are on duty day and night to run the two machines. As soon as the ambulance is a Ford car with a special body constructed for ambulance purposes, and the patrol auto is an Emerson car turned out at the local plant. With the addition of the two motors the police department efficiency has been greatly increased.

Two young negroes, staged a street fight on Greenkill avenue which was broken up by Policeman Welch who placed both men under arrest. Holland was found to be badly wounded about the arm and chest the wounds being inflicted with a pen knife by Dix, who claims that Sylvester used a club. Both negroes were arraigned before City Judge Brinrier, who acted as recorder during the absence of Recorder Lang who was called out of town. Judge Brinrier held the negroes for 48 hours to give Holland a chance to have his wounds dressed. Both negroes are from the south and were brought here to work as laborers on the West Shore railroad. They were remanded to jail without bail to await a hearing at the adjourned day.

Fate of the Indolent.
It is the common fate of the indolent to see their rights become a prey to the active. The condition upon which God hath given liberty to man is eternal vigilance; which condition if he break, servitude is at once the consequence of his crime and the punishment of his guilt.—John Philpot Curran.

START FOR DEPOT COMPANY IS MADE

Twenty-two Men Take Oath to Serve State for Two Years at Home Station And 17 Others Have Been Accepted—Captain Meagher Administers Oath.

Actual organization of a Depot Company to serve at the home station when Company M, Tenth Regiment, goes into active service was begun Thursday night at the state armory when Captain Frank L. Meagher administered the oath to twenty-two men who enlisted for two years for service within the state. Seventeen more applications have been accepted and these men will be sworn in later. Within the next ten days it is expected that the 65 men necessary for the organization of a Depot Company will have been sworn in.

The men who took the oath in the Depot Company, Class A, were: M. Clyde Crosby, Charles B. Finch, Howard Burhans, Martin Harnlocker, Milton O. Auchmoody, Clifford Sears, George J. Whitaker, Martin L. Spencer, Peter J. Halloran, Gilbert E. Kennedy, Gilbert Reynolds, George Kent, Eugene R. Carey, Ray A. Elmendorf, Arlington Morgendahl, Wallace D. Beater, William C. DeWitt, Charles N. Behrens, Carlton S. Preston, Charles W. Shultz, Eddo Matthews, Christopher Snyder.

After Company M moved out, the Depot Company will be in charge at the armory and will accept recruits in Class A as well as in Class B. Class A men being those willing to enlist in active service with the company at the front. The recruits to fill in gaps in the ranks will come from Class A while upon Class B will devolve the duty discharged by Company M in preserving order and doing guard service at home.

With a Depot Company at last actually in process of being formed, it is believed that many young men will take advantage of the opportunity to join this organization and thus prepare so that in the event of being drafted, they will have some knowledge of the duties of a soldier or, if not drafted, they will be part of an effective and necessary defense force for duty within the state.

Kingston has not had a Depot Company since 1898 when the Tenth Separate Company left the service in the Spanish-American war and the 114th Provisional Company was formed.

UNCLE SAM WANTS 100,000 MEN NOW

Regular Army War Quota Not Yet Filled and 151 Regiments Are in Process of Organization—Patriotic Committees Asked to Aid Local Recruiting Station.

That the progress of recruiting has been unsatisfactory is the plain statement made by heads of the recruiting branches of the army and navy in instructions to local enlists. A telegram received by Private James A. Davis, in charge of the army recruiting station in the Knights of Columbus Home, Broadway, today states that recruiting must be speeded up to maximum intensity.

The advantage to the recruit who enlists now, instead of waiting for the draft, is obvious, according to army men, as the man joining now will be some months ahead of the draft contingents in drill and training. In fact, he will be well on the way to being a completely trained and equipped soldier before the conscripts are fairly drawn.

Fifty-one regiments are now forming at eighteen stations and the army needs 100,000 recruits immediately. Less than fifty percent of the war quota of the regular army has been obtained in the last sixty days and the intention is to bring home the head of the army in every locality. Private Davis has had the co-operation of the press and the Knights of Columbus but his superior officers are seeking the assistance of all patriotic committees and organizations and it may be that the Home Defense Committee will co-operate in so far as is possible.

CLIMBING GARDENS

Crawlers Must Be Made to Get Off the Earth.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR VINES.

An Expert Gives Home Gardeners Advice About Caring For Squashes and Plants That Naturally Trail—Soy Beans as a Substitute For Meats.

(From National Emergency Food Garden Commission.)

As usually grown cucumbers are planted in hills four or six feet apart and allowed to spread out along the ground. But in small gardens cucumbers should not be grown unless they are to be trained upon poles or trellises.

When they are trained to climb the vines may be fifteen or eighteen inches apart. A useful method is to plant them on the south side of the garden fence so that the vines may grow up on strings to the top of the fence. In training the vines tie them with soft cotton yarn, and if large, elching cucumbers are grown it may be necessary to support the fruit with loops of tape.

Since cucumbers thrive in rich soil a suggested method is to plant them around a leaky barrel, training them up the sides. In the barrel should be placed two bushels of manure, and water should be frequently poured in the barrel. Leaking out, it will fertilize the plants round the bottom.

Cucumbers may be planted up to July.

Summer squashes are bushy and need less space than the winter variety. When the vines are allowed to run along the ground they may be planted in hills four feet apart, whereas the hills of winter vines should be planted eight to ten feet apart.

Three or four squash vines will supply a family. When vines are allowed to run it is well to throw a spade of earth over each vine every three or four feet at a leaf joint. Where it is thus covered it will put out roots, offsetting any injury to the vine nearer the main root.

Inasmuch as it is not safe to set out eggplant in the garden much before the middle of June and because the plant requires a long growing season, the seeds should be sown indoors. One-third of an ounce of seed will produce enough plants to make a row 100 feet long. These seeds are usually sown thickly in rows in the seed boxes, and when the plants are large enough to handle they are transplanted to flower pots filled with rich soil.

From Japan, home of some of the most intensive farming the world ever saw, comes the soy bean. Imported first as a crop to build up the fertility of American soil, it is now claiming a place in the American diet.

Soy beans will not grow well in soil where they have never grown before unless that soil is impregnated with certain microscopical germs which the roots must have—that is, for soy beans the soil must be inoculated. This is simple. All that is needed is to get a little soy bean culture or some soil which has produced soy beans. This culture is sold by seedsmen. It is cheap, and a handful is enough for a bean patch.

Where Stocks are Always Complete and Prices Lowest

A visitor to Kingston who had purchased a home in the mountains and wished to furnish it was directed to the R-G-R Store as the store where he would probably get what he wanted with the maximum of service and a minimum charge. On completion of his purchases which were extensive both he and his wife were particular to express their appreciation of the service given and the values received. They had no idea, they said that Kingston had a Store so extensive, so complete and so well stocked as they found the R-G-R Store to be. This is but one of many daily instances that testify to the ever growing supremacy. KINGSTON'S LEADING STORE.

Doings of the Van Loons

Yes, Father will have to stick to his old Battlefields

By F. Leipziger

STREET GOSSIP ABOUT TOWN

"What's the use of looking mad," said the street corner politician to his friend as they met to exchange views.

"It's just how I feel," replied the friend.

"That might be so," said the politician, "but it don't get you anything."

"I guess you are right at that," commented the friend.

"Talking about being mad," continued the politician, "puts me in mind of a yarn I heard the other day."

"Shoot away," said the friend.

"It seems that a downtown store which sells gas ranges," continued the politician, "hired a young man from a business school as office assistant."

"I got you," said the friend as the politician paused.

"And naturally the other boys in the store thought he should be laid off," continued the politician, "and one of them called the young man to the office and told him that a customer was just in after an article but they were all sold out and instructed him to go to another store down the street and get a shaker for a gas range and have it charged to the store account."

"The young man started off on his trip and when he entered the other store he made known his wants, but was gravely informed that they were all sold out, and advised him to go to still another store where they might have a few in stock."

"The young man did so and repeated his request for a shaker for a gas range but the store was also sold out," and he returned to the office and said that none of the other stores had the shaker.

"Go down to the drug store then," said the clerk who had sent him out for the shaker, "and get me a pint of pigeon's milk."

"It was at this point that the new young man woke up to the fact that he was being kidded," said the politician.

"And I suppose he got mad," interrupted the friend.

"Sure," replied the politician, "but as I said before getting mad never gets you anything and he decided the best plan was to laugh it off and he did."

Talking about the joke they played on him," said the friend, "puts me in mind of what happened to a green driver of one of the delivery wagons of a firm on the Strand."

"I got along," said the politician, "this driver," continued the friend, "had a horse which did not appear in as good condition as the horse driven by the other employee of the firm and he asked this other driver what he supposed made the difference."

"I'll tell you," replied the other driver in a confidential whisper, "do you ever feed your horse any ambition powders?"

"I never thought of that," replied the green driver, "where can I get them?"

"Any drug store handles them," the other driver assured him, and the green driver started off on the quest.

"Didn't he find out it was all a joke?" asked the politician.

"Not until later," replied the friend, "and then there was a row."

Changing the subject, said the politician, "have you heard who would likely be appointed postmaster?"

"No have you?" asked the friend.

"Some deservin' Democrat," said the politician, "but I have not heard yet who was tagged for the office."

"Who do you suppose will get it?" queried the friend.

"Uptown Democrats seem to lean to the opinion that the founder of the Jeffersonian Club might be the right man," replied the politician, "while the downtown deservin' Democrats think it should be given to one of their number."

"Who do you think will win out?" asked the friend.

"That is a question," replied the politician, "that a good man would like answered, but to my mind the Old Guard will have to give way to the Young Tories."

"Why?" asked the friend.

"It looks as though the Old Guard had better not stick their heads on county politics," replied the politician, "and that the younger leaders were serving to the front."

"Maybe the Old Guard don't want it," suggested the friend.

"I never saw a paying job yet that didn't want," replied the politician.

OUR APPLES AND PEARS.

Brazil and Argentina Fating Their Share Each Year.

Brazil and Argentina together now take 80,000 barrels of American apples and 65,000 boxes of American pears each year, and the trade is growing steadily, says a report on South American markets for fresh fruits just issued by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, of the Department of Commerce.

Trade in other fruits is less important, but since the war started American products have had the market to themselves so far as outside competition is concerned and have made a very good impression.

In both Brazil and Argentina the American apple is supreme in the high class trade as it is in all parts of the world and its sale is limited only by the number of people who are able to pay the rather high prices asked for it. The American pear is especially well liked in Brazil and sells well, also, in Argentina. In Brazil apples and pears appeal to consumers in much the same manner that tropical fruits appeal to Americans, but in Argentina, where the climate in the main closely resembles that of the United States, American fruits of this description sell for two entirely different reasons.

First, because they come during the off season for the native and New Zealand fruit, and second because of their unquestioned quality.

Walter Fischer, author of the Bureau's report, states that practically all of this trade dates from 1910, the greatest increase occurring in 1912-13, so that the war had nothing to do with its early growth. Since the war started shipments from Europe have been largely cut off and purchases from the United States have increased accordingly.

Competition with the cheaper and lower-grade European fruit will become as keen as ever probably when the war is over, but the American supply will have a strong hold on its fancy apple and pear trade. If he loses any of it he will have only himself to blame.

The west coast of South America is not so good a market for foreign fresh fruits as Brazil and Argentina, but the author states that more business can be obtained if careful attention is given the subject.

Markets for all kinds of fresh fruit are discussed in the report and considerable attention is given to the native fruit-growing industries and the attempts that have been made to market South American fruits in North American markets during the off season. Copies of this 163 page bulletin may be obtained for the nominal price of twenty-five cents from the nearest district or co-operative office or from the superintendent of documents, Washington, D. C. In ordering use the complete title "South American Markets for Fresh Fruits, Special Agents Series No. 131."

EVERY DAY LUNCHEON.

When cooking eggs, to make a few serve a large number, use cold boiled rice, two or three tablespoonsful to the egg. If the eggs are scrambled, mix with milk and butter. Mix all the ingredients and serve hot at once. Uncooked rice may also serve as an economy with eggs. Put two tablespoonsful of rice in an omelet pan with two tablespoonsful of butter, cook until the rice is brown, then add a little water and let it simmer until the rice is tender, now add the eggs, stir and cook until well cooked and serve hot after seasoning well.

Egg Soup.—To one quart of boiling stock add a grated onion, half a teaspoonful of celery seed and salt and pepper to taste. Boil five minutes, add a half cupful of boiled rice, when hot take from the fire, add the yolks of two eggs well beaten and serve at once.

Prunes and raisins boiled together, using half of each, sweeten with the juice, add to sage and cook until clear, then serve very cold.

Deviled Crabs.—To one can of minced crab meat or two cupfuls of freshly boiled crab meat add the yolks of two hard cooked eggs mashed fine, a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, paprika and the juice of half a lemon. A teaspoonful of dry mustard, and a few drops of tabasco sauce. Add enough bread crumbs to make a paste. Fill crab shells with the mixture, cover with buttered crumbs and bake until brown. Ramkins may be used in place of shells.

Beef Olives.—Take slices of rare roast beef and roll each around a thin slice of bacon which has been fried until transparent. Bind with twine and boil for five minutes. Remove the string and add some bacon fat to the roast beef gravy, season with tomato catsup or Worcestershire, boil up once and pour over the olives. Serve very hot.

Marquise Pudding.—Cut squares of angel food baked in a sheet, sprinkle with chopped nuts and cover with whipped cream. Candied fruit may be added to make it more delicious.

INSTRUCTIONS IN TWELVE LANGUAGES

State's Inventory of Population to be Taken June 11-25 and Will Furnish Valuable Data as to Resources in Man-Power Behind the Lines.

Albany, N. Y., June 1.—General instructions for answering questions to be asked the people of the state during the two weeks from June 11 to June 25 when the state census and inventory of military resources is to be taken, have been mailed from the census headquarters in Albany and will be posted throughout the state in twelve languages.

"The entire census form should be read through completely before any of the questions are answered," the instruction sheet says. "If the person enumerated lacks the information to enable him to answer one or more of the questions specifically, he should answer to the best of his ability or write 'Do not know,' in the space provided for the answer."

When the 5,600,000 answer sheets have been tabulated the state authorities will know all that is necessary from a military point of view concerning the men and women of the state, their capabilities, and their property that might be used for war. In some quarters there has been criticism of the fact that no man or woman more than fifty years of age is to be asked to make a statement on the ownership of automobiles and auto trucks, vans, power boats, wagons, wireless outfits, draft and saddle horses, and mules. The reason given by those in charge of the census, however, is that most of this property is owned by people more than fifty years old who would volunteer it in time of need, and that therefore there was no need of including everyone over the age of fifty in the census just to find out something that can be obtained in other ways. The rules point out that in answering these questions the husband must be careful not to list property owned by his wife.

Much importance is to be attached to answers to the question, "Can you operate an automobile, a power boat, a telegraph instrument, a stationary steam engine, a motorcycle, an airplane, a wireless outfit, a steam locomotive?"

"Answer 'yes' or 'no' to each question," the rules say. "Answer 'yes' only if you can operate any of the foregoing alone and without assistance."

The questions also will bring out whether the persons answering has ever been employed as a shipbuilder, and in what capacity; whether the person is a licensed pilot, or a navigator.

"In what country were you born?" is one of the questions, and the instructions for answering say:

"Give name of country as existing previous to the present war, as 'Belgium,' 'France,' 'Spain.' If the country of your birth has well recognized subdivisions, give both country and sub-division, as 'Great Britain-Ireland,' or 'Canada-Newfoundland.' Do not give continent, as 'South America' or 'Africa.' If born in the United States answer 'U. S.'"

The instruction sheet contains carefully worked out definitions of citizenship, and shows that answers to the question, "Are you a citizen of the United States?" must be either "yes" or "no."

"You are a citizen of the United States if

"Born in the United States (Alaska and Hawaii included) and not subject to any foreign power, or

"If duly naturalized (first and second papers), or

"If born out of the United States of a father who at the time was a United States citizen and had at some time resided in the United States, or

"If born out of the United States of alien parents provided that your father or surviving parent was naturalized before you became twenty-one years of age and provided that you began to reside permanently in the United States before you were twenty-one years of age.

"If you have expatriated yourself you are not a United States citizen, even though you otherwise would fall in one of the above classes. An alien who has taken out his first papers remains a citizen of his country of origin and does not become a citizen of the United States until he has taken out his second papers."

The question sheet will bring out whether the citizen is such by birth or naturalization, and if not a citizen whether he had taken out first papers, and of what country he is a citizen.

"Are you married?" is a question to be answered as follows, according to the instructions: Answer either 'yes' or 'no.' If widower answer 'no.' If divorced answer 'divorced.' If divorced and remarried answer only 'yes.'

"Is your wife living?" It is to be answered as follows: "Answer either 'yes' or 'no.' If divorced and wife living answer 'yes.' If you have answered 'no' to preceding question (are you married?) draw a line through space provided for answer."

"How many persons, including only mother, father, wife or child, sister or brother under twelve years of age are dependent upon you for their entire support?" It is to be answered like this: "Give briefly relationship of such persons, as 'wife,' 'sister,' 'two children under twelve years,' but only in case such persons are wholly dependent upon you for their entire support. Children, sisters or brothers may be listed as dependent only if under twelve years of age. Consider your answer carefully. Neither overlook your duty to your dependents because of your desire to serve, nor hide behind them unless they are in truth wholly dependent upon you for support. Where both the father and mother contribute to the support of dependent children, such dependent children must be divided between the two and must not be duplicated. If no one is wholly dependent upon you answer 'none.'"

"Do you claim exemption from military service?" is a question to be answered either "yes" or "no," but the next question, "If so upon what grounds?" has these instructions: "If you answered 'no' to question 28 (exemption question) draw a line through space provided for answer otherwise give as briefly as possible the reason which in your opinion entitles you to exemption, as 'religious scruples,' 'alien,' or any physical disability, past or present, or serious disease which you have had. Be clear and specific, as 'defective eyesight,' or 'loss of arm.'"

For those who admit they want to join some military organizations, there are questions under which they can say if they want to get in the army or navy, the National Guard or naval militia, or whatever branch of service they desire, as "wireless telegraphy," "quartermaster corps," "aviation corps," but on this the rules say "only if you believe you have special abilities for such service."

WOODSTOCK'S OBSERVANCE.

Roger Loughran Orator at Memorial Day Exercises.

Woodstock, June 1.—A large audience assembled at the Reformed Church on Memorial Day to listen to the impressive address given by Roger Loughran of Kingston. Much enthusiasm was shown and the meeting was seemingly deeply impressed by the intense spirit of patriotism which Mr. Loughran endeavored so successfully to instill. Not for many a day has so interesting and at the same time so earnest a speaker as Mr. Loughran visited Woodstock and it is to be regretted that there are not more young men of his stamp in this time of national stress.

Although the inclemency of the weather prevented the preparation during the past week of the elaborate musical program usually rendered, many of the old national and patriotic hymns were sung by the choir and audience in a spirited way, and as H. R. Smith remarked, seemed to show more of the memorial spirit than newer compositions as they brought back to the mind of many the memories of the past.

The services were under the direction of H. R. Smith of New York, who was one of the two veterans of the Civil War who were present. Mr. Smith is well known here and has been summering in Woodstock some years past. He is a veteran of the Civil War, having seen many months of active service. The program was as follows:

Singing—Coronation (3 verses) ...

Choir and Audience.

Reading Scripture, Rev. Mr. Sherman

Prayer, Rev. Mr. Brink

Singing—Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean, ... Choir and Audience

Recitation—Battle Hymn of the Republic (with chorus) ...

Miss D. Johnston.

Recitation, ... Miss D. Johnston

Address, Roger Loughran, of Kingston.

PLATTEKILL.

Plattekill, June 1.—A wedding will be solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Birdsall, Saturday evening, at 6 o'clock, June 3, when their youngest daughter, Miss Irene Birdsall will be married to Samuel Andrews of Walden, N. Y.

Miss Birdsall is considered as one of Plattekill's most popular young ladies, generally taking an active part in social and church doings. Therefore the young couple are tendered the best wishes of happiness and prosperity by the residents of this village.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Plattekill will hold a meeting with the New Hurley Union in the Sunday school room of the M. E. Church, Friday afternoon, June 1st to consult plans concerning the convention to be held in the Methodist Church here in September. A report of the convention held at Clintondale will be given. An interesting meeting is expected and a full membership attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler and daughter were visitors in New Paltz last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conine and family from Newburgh were visitors in this place Sunday.

Miss Thillie Nabor is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nelson Yeager at Maybrook, N. Y.

Miss Susie Foster of Newburgh spent Sunday at her home here.

Extensive repairs are being made in the creamery by A. D. Wager.

Charles Fowler was a visitor in Walden Sunday.

Frank G. Terwilliger, employed as lawyer to a prominent New York firm in New York city, visited his relatives here this week.

J. Walton Brown spent a few days the past week in New York city.

Edna Conine visited relatives at Newburgh the latter part of last week.

Ira Tompkins is learning to drive his new five-passenger Ford car.

Apparently farm life didn't agree with Mr. and Mrs. Scandell of Newburgh, who made the brief stay of a week on M. A. Gerow's farm where they were employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Minard and daughter were out of town visitors Sunday.

FLATBUSH.

Flatbush, June 1.—Miss Rachel Osterhoudt spent a few days in Kingston and Katrine recently.

Mrs. Abram Horsbeck and Mrs. Harold Osterhoudt have returned from Union Hill, N. W. Miller and Mrs. William Kierstedt were Sunday guests at the home of Frank Osterhoudt last week.

Mrs. Frederick Burhans is at the Benedictine Sanitarium.

The Rev. Mr. Schaefer, a returned missionary to Japan, preached for us last Sunday.

The Rev. G. W. Wyckoff will not be with us next Sunday as plans have been changed and a candidate will occupy the pulpit.

Miss Mary Osterhoudt attended the C. E. County Convention at Walkkill. The T. X. T. Club gave a variety shower at the club house last week for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woolsey, who were married recently.

Mrs. Benjamin Osterhoudt is critically ill and in the care of a trained nurse.

HOW TO TRAIN YOUR VINES.

An Expert Gives Home Gardeners Advice About Caring For Squashes and Plants That Naturally Trail—Says Beans as a Substitute For Melons.

[From National Emergency Food Garden Commission.]

As usually grown cucumbers are planted in hills four or six feet apart and allowed to spread out along the ground. But in small gardens cucumbers should not be grown unless they are to be trained upon poles or trellises. When they are trained to climb the vines may be fifteen or eighteen inches apart. A useful method is to plant them on the south side of the garden fence so that the vines may grow up on strings to the top of the fence. In training the vines tie them with soft cotton yarn, and if large, slicing cucumbers are grown it may be necessary to support the fruit with loops of tape.

Since cucumbers thrive in rich soil a suggested method is to plant them around a leaky barrel, training them up the sides. In the barrel should be placed two bushels of manure, and water should be frequently poured in the barrel. Leaking out, it will fertilize the plants round the bottom. Cucumbers may be planted up to July.

Summer squashes are bushy and need less space than the winter variety. When the vines are allowed to run along the ground they may be planted in hills four feet apart, whereas the hills of winter vines should be planted eight to ten feet apart.

Three or four squash vines will supply a family. When vines are allowed to run it is well to throw a spadeful of earth over each vine every three or four feet at a leaf joint. Where it is thus covered it will put out roots, offsetting any injury to the vine nearer the main root.

Inasmuch as it is not safe to set out eggplant in the garden much before the middle of June and because the plant requires a long growing season, the seeds should be sown indoors. One third of an ounce of seed will produce enough plants to make a row 100 feet long. These seeds are usually sown thickly in rows in the seed boxes, and when the plants are large enough to handle they are transplanted to flower pots filled with rich soil.

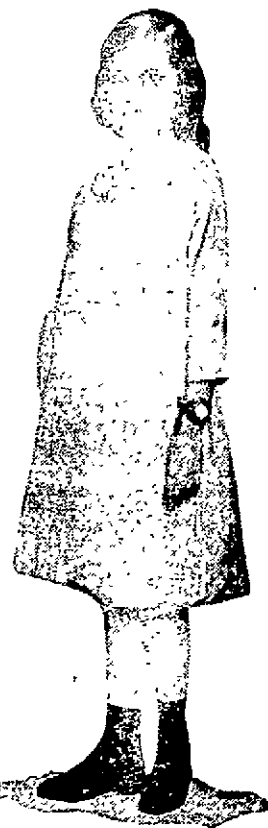

From Japan home of some of the most intensive farming the world over came the soy bean. Imported first as a crop to build up the fertility of American soil it is now claiming a place in the American diet.

Soy beans will not grow well in soil where they have never grown before unless that soil is impregnated with certain microscopical germs which the plant must be inoculated. This is simple. All that is needed is to get a little soy bean culture or some soil which has produced soy beans. This culture is sold by seedsmen. It is cheap, and a handful is enough for a bean patch.

Where Stocks are Always Complete and Prices Lowest

A visitor to Kingston who had purchased a home in the mountains and wished to furnish it was directed to the R-G-R Store as the store where he would probably get what he wanted with the maximum of service and a minimum charge. On completion of his purchases which were extensive both he and his wife were particular to express their appreciation of the service given and the values received. They had no idea, they said that Kingston had a Store so extensive, so complete and so well stocked as they found the R-G-R Store to be. This is but one of many daily instances that testify to the ever growing supremacy. KINGSTON'S LEADING STORE.

A CHRISTIAN DUTY TO BUY WAR BONDS

The Rev. Dr. Ellis Urges Obligations of Citizens Upon Members of Congregation—Scriptural Examples of Bonds and Bondmen.

On Sunday morning last Dr. Ellis, pastor of the Rondout Presbyterian Church, spoke concerning the Liberty Bonds. His text was Genesis 44:33, "Now, therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my Lord." Dr. Ellis said: "These words were spoken by Judah in his appeal to Joseph that he might take the place of his younger brother Benjamin and be bound in his stead. Judah's bonds would be Liberty Bonds for Benjamin. We might call them the first Liberty Bonds. A bondman of the old time was first a bound man, a prisoner tied and bound until he reached the enemy country where he became a servant or slave. A bond in time came to signify not simply the cords that bind but also legal papers and agreements that bind as well. When one gives a mortgage, he binds himself also with a bond. If he fails to perform the requirements of the bond the mortgage becomes due and is foreclosed. A bond executed by a nation binds the nation as truly as Judah would bind himself in the place of his brother.

1. Consider then our Liberty Bonds. Our government is incurring a colossal debt. It is appealing to all patriots to buy the bonds. The bonds that will call for enormous taxation, increase of tariff and obligations that will not be redeemed for a generation, perhaps for generations. In this instance Uncle Sam becomes Judah and says, "Now, therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide a bond man."

2. These bonds like Judah's are a debt assumed for the liberty of others. By them we are bound for Benjamin. Benjamin in this case represents the oppressed and suffering people of Belgium, overrun and crushed, of the desolated sections of France, of Serbia, of Poland, of Armenia, where a million have been slaughtered at Mt. Lebanon, where eighty thousand have perished, done to death, of Montenegro. Benjamin represents the suffering, terrorized neutrals, Switzerland, Holland, Denmark, Norway, in fact humanity. We bind our nation for the rights of man. That Benjamin may be free from Prussian overlordship, free from Prussian worship of power, of blood and iron, free from Prussian ideals and Prussian morality; free to think and to work out the destiny of nations; that reason may be freed from force.

Liberty bonds bind all there is of America, all the produce of our fields, all the wealth of our mines, all the resources of our forests, the output of factories, furnaces, all our choice young men, all our colossal wealth, all of our American people.

3. These Liberty Bonds indicate that this is not a "Wall Street" war. Capital is timid, capital is conservative. Liberty Bonds represent the great adventure, a great risk not for a financial but a moral stake. The only war capital favors is a war for a sure thing. Liberty Bonds represent enormous taxation, curtailing if incomes, sacrifice, self-denial, hence the revelation of the heart of America.

4. Liberty Bonds call for individual sacrifice, for saving, for a reduced interest. They give everyone an opportunity to do his part, each a chance to bear his share of the burden. Not everyone can go to the front; everyone who will deny himself can save and buy a bond. Lastly, Liberty Bonds are thoroughly Christian in their appeal. Salvation like liberty can only be obtained by a vicarious atonement. One must ever be bound for the liberation of another. As Isaiah said of old, "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed." We at advancement in liberty, has there been without a bond man, someone to bear and to suffer?

Our fathers bound themselves for our political and religious liberties. What a roll of bond men we might call, Paul and St. Augustine, Gregory and Bede, St. Francis and Savanarola, Luther and Knox, Washington, Robert Morris and Franklin, Lincoln and McKinley. We bonded ourselves for the union, we bonded ourselves to set Cuba free and now we bond ourselves for the freedom of man. As we Christians have bonded ourselves for the support of the gospel and the spread of its message of love and freedom in our community, throughout our country and throughout the mission fields of the world, so should we recognize our obligation to bear our share of the Liberty Bonds for the rights of man.

GRANITE.
Granite, May 31—Mr. Seppert of Kerhonkson will give a lecture in the M. E. Church Tuesday evening, June 5. Men trustees will be elected. All are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Van Deryn are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter. Both mother and child are doing well.

Mrs. Rosetta called on Mrs. D. F. Vanderyn and mother Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Dorothy L. Sheldon spent Saturday in Kingston.

Amos Addis is very ill. His many friends hope he will be better soon.

Miss Ruby M. Smith left Monday for Minneapaska, where she expects to remain for the summer season.

The entertainment which was given Saturday night was largely attended. Much credit is due our teacher, Miss Jennie Sheldon. The children were well trained and took their parts well.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. George P. Smith Saturday afternoon, June 2. All come as early as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Increase Green and son Walter and Hebron Sheldon were the guests of Charles Terwilliger and family of Kerhonkson Sunday and attended services in the evening.

KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES

have that air of "go-forward" about them; you can notice it on some of the best dressed men right here in Kingston.

And the nice thing about it is, you don't have to be built "just so" to wear such clothes; they're built "just so" for you, no matter what your build.

And besides the elegance of style, they have an excellence of value that we couldn't begin to tell about in words. Prices as usual--

MOTION PICTURES IN CHINA.

There Were Lively Times For the Men Who Introduced Them.

At the end of the Russo-Japanese war, says the Los Angeles Times, Mr. Brodsky, a native of Odessa, Russia, came to San Francisco. After the great San Francisco fire he left the city with an old motion picture machine and forty or fifty reels of "junk" film. With that he sailed for the Orient. The motion picture was unknown in China when he reached there with his paraphernalia, and he ran into many dangers in showing his wares. To the natives his camera and projecting machine was a "magic box." He had to pay his first audiences to enter his theater, which, by the way, was only a tent. In that way he finally won the crowds.

He had to pay his first audiences to enter his theater, which, by the way, was only a tent. In that way he finally won the crowds.

Matters were progressing well when Brodsky one day put on a wild west film in which a band of cowboys appeared on the screen, charging straight at the spectators and firing revolvers. The moment the audience saw those shooting cowboys bearing down upon them they rushed, panic-stricken, from the tent theater, cutting their way out with knives.

After that the cautious natives were slow to come back. But finally Brodsky hit upon the plan of having a few Chinese come and examine the apparatus, pass their hands over the blank sheet that was the screen and assure themselves that there was nothing to hurt them.

Gradually he established picture theaters throughout the country until now there are eighty of them.

Once he was thrown into a Chinese jail, but finally made his escape after getting the whole populace into the jail to view his motion pictures. At another place he was to have been executed as a "devil," but he frightened the people and made them change their minds by telling them that he could easily put them on the screen and make them work there forever.

AMERICANS IN FOREIGN LEGION

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Paris, May 15. (By mail to New York), June 1.—Americans in the French Foreign Legion have contributed a glorious page to the history of their country while fighting in the service of France.

While the French government allows statistics and names to be published in connection with the Aviation Corps and the Americans therein, nothing is ever said about the Foreign Legion nor are the figures as to its personnel ever given out.

The Foreign Legion is a polyglot body of warriors known the world over. No questions are ever asked a man when he makes application to join it. Nor is any information forthcoming should the applicant for membership inquire about the Legion.

The Legion has distinguished itself time and again in this conflict and citizens of the United States played a prominent part in some of the bloody fighting with the Germans.

Corporal John Barrett, of Boston, was one of the first to enlist in the Legion at the beginning of the war. He died a victim of German treachery on April 17 during the second day of the French offensive in Champagne.

When the order came to charge Barrett was among the first to go over the parapet. The Legionnaires stormed forward amidst a storm of shot and shell. But the ranks never faltered and through the bursting bombs, the crashing shells, the sweeping machine gun sprays and the shrapnel they steadily advanced until they were in the Germans' first line trenches.

Barrett fell with a bullet through his leg. Just as he fell the Germans swept from their second line trenches in a savage counter attack.

The Legionnaires were forced to give up their newly won ground and retire to their old position. From their trenches comrades of the fallen American saw him picked up and carried by the Germans into their second line.

Three hours later, the Legion, reinforced by another regiment, again attacked. This time the Germans were not only swept from their first line trenches, but the second line as well.

In the second line trenches the body of Barrett was found. A bayonet had been plunged through his heart.

Only the day before Barrett had written a post card to a friend in Paris, Mrs. Percy Weeks, of Boston. Upon it he had written:

"Thanks for your charming letter. Tomorrow! Don't forget to buy the papers. Unfortunately I have nothing of material value to will you but if my affection could be transformed into dollars you would have a lovely pension for life. Yours, Jack."

The "tomorrow" mentioned by Barrett was in reference to the date of the attack. Two weeks before he had been recalled from Paris where he was on leave because of the forthcoming offensive.

It was on this last furlough that some friends presented Barrett with a wrist watch. In thanking them he said:

"I guess about the only reason a soldier should have for a wrist watch is to tell what hour he was killed."

Before his tragic death Barrett had written a letter to Mrs. Weeks describing a previous attack.

"It was hell," wrote the American. "I was almost tempted to 'stumble' accidentally into one of the shell holes that furnish protection while the war was 'iron-plated.' It was my corporal's stripes that prevented me and gave me the courage to stumble alone, although our boys were being mowed down by the most terrible machine gun fire I have ever seen."

Although only 22 years of age and a newcomer in the ranks of the Legion Barrett was made a corporal after six months' service. Some of the older members were disgruntled to think that a "youngster" would have authority over them out at the first sign of insubordination Barrett peeled off his coat and gave the man a terrible thrashing.

"If I am a corporal I am going to be a corporal," he exclaimed.

A little wooden cross back of the French lines in Champagne where the great guns are never quiet and where battle surges ceaselessly marks the last resting place of Corporal John Barrett, American.

Names Coined in the Navy.

Rudyard Kipling said in an article the other day, "The lower deck . . . always has the proper names for things," and how true that is we are inclined to forget. "Dreadnaught" as a noun of multitude was a lower deck coinage, and so was "ironclad." When these vessels were first constructed they were variously designated as "iron," "steel" or "armor plated," and even about "plated" there was a difference of opinion, for "cased," "clothed" and "sided" served at various times as alternatives.

In fact, these ships' official designation until 1896 was "iron plated." "Battleship" is a nautical curtailment of the official "line of battle ship."

COTTON CROP
CONDITION POOR

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—The condition of the south's cotton crop today was reported by the department of agriculture to be the poorest in years and nearly ten points under the ten-year average. On May 28 the condition was 69.5 per cent of normal.

Cold weather in April and May killed much cotton outright and damaged a wide acreage. Much replanting has been necessitated and the crop is reported as stunted in nearly all sections. The present condition indicated the crop will be three weeks late, the report says. The May 28 condition compares with 77.5 per cent a year ago and a ten year average of 79.1 per cent.

In many sections the staple has been attacked by lice and weevils. Despite a short labor supply farmers are keeping cultivation up to normal. The principal labor shortage is east of the Mississippi river.

While officials generally do not regard a poor cotton crop as so serious as a poor food crop would be, it is admitted that unless there is phenomenal improvement in the cotton during the summer the price of the staple will remain at an unusually high figure.

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, June 1.—Aaron V. Robinson, former resident of Saugerties, is a Red Cross ambulance driver in France.

—Mrs. J. Frankel of Finger street is visiting in New York city.

Mrs. Nettie Coon of Brooklyn is a guest of her mother, Mrs. John Mower, on June street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Washburn of John street are in Atlantic City. Mrs. Hayes of Brooklyn is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hayes on Market street.

Edward Bridgman of New York city is the guest of his parents on Montgomery street.

A birthday social for children and adults will be held in Trinity parish house, Barclay Heights, this evening, Friday.

Infantile paralysis has made its appearance in Saugerties. The dreaded disease is in the family of John Lanigan on Barclay Heights, a son, 12 years old, being the afflicted.

ANOTHER STEAMER
SUNK BY SUBMARINE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—The Johnston Line steamer Jess More, which sailed from this port May 4 with a cargo for Liverpool, has been sunk by a German submarine, the Robert Ramsay Company, agents of the steamer at this port, announced today.

Captain Hignett and all hands were saved. In the crew was one American, N. D. Denthorpe.

Tuberculosis Hospital Gifts.

There are now 22 patients at the Tuberculosis Hospital, leaving but one unoccupied bed. In fact the hospital has been unusually full all spring. Among the patients there is now one little girl about 4 years old, and the gift of toys was indeed welcomed by this little "shut in" girl. There is a constant need of old muslin, linen or new cheese cloth, and the management of the hospital hopes that among all the needs of this sort at present the hospital will not be forgotten. Gifts for the month of May were: Flowers from Mrs. J. Albert Wood; 50 cents from A. Friend; one half dozen sheets and one half dozen pillow slips from A. Friend; magazines from the Stuyvesant Barber Shop; a rocking chair for the Ella Dedrick Room, from the Queen Esther Circle of the St. James M. E. Church; cut flowers from Miss Compton; old linen and children's toys from Mrs. Deegan; old linen from the Circles of Mercy.

Home and Country Club.

The Junior Order Home and Country Club, Inc., has filed a certificate of incorporation with the county clerk. The company's principal office is located in the town of New Paltz. The purpose of the company is to buy, sell and work farm lands, raise vegetables and carry on a general farming business. The company will begin business with a capital stock of $2,000. Edgar H. Eckert of Lloyd, Louis E. Swart of New York city and Harry W. Nadel of New York city are the directors.

Trolley Men to Bunch Buying.

Members of the Trolleyman's Union of the Orange County Traction Co. have decided to go on with their proposition of buying foodstuffs in wholesale lots and distributing the food among members at cost price.

An Old Game.

While some devotees believe that the playing of chess blindfolded is a modern invention, the inhabitants of India in very early times achieved this feat with great success. It was, indeed, considered a test of memory.

NEW YORK PORT
CLOSED TWO HOURS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—After Secretary Daniels had declared that no orders to close the port of New York had been sent from here, it was admitted through the Committee on Public Information this afternoon that the port was closed for two hours this morning.

It was stated that upon orders from the New York navy yard to the customs officials ships clearing after 9 o'clock were notified that they would probably be held up at the harbor entrance. The port was then closed until 11 o'clock.

Official information on the incident reached Washington through the treasury department but it was made clear that the local naval authorities at New York acted on their own initiative, and no explanation of the move was forthcoming.

Patriotic Church Service.

All members of Pratt Post, G. A. R., Tappen Camp, S. O. V., and Ladies' Auxiliary No. 43, are invited to attend services in the Church of the Holy Spirit on Sunday evening, June 3, at which time a flag will be presented to the church.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, June 1.—The musical given by Miss Bailey, assisted by Miss Kurtz, reader, at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, a benefit for Ellenville Red Cross, under the direction of the Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church, was well attended and everyone enjoyed the singing of Miss Bailey, who was at her best. Miss Kurtz was very pleasing to the audience. It was her first appearance in Ellenville, but she gave her readings with a charm and skill that could not help but arouse the appreciation and sympathetic response of the audience. She was truly an impersonator whose living imagination and convincing personality makes the characters she portrays live again for the auditors. One of particular mention was "Assisting Uncle Joe," by Mayme Betney. The very clever accompanist was also well received.

Memorial Day of 1917 will long be remembered as one of the most beautiful of days—clear, bright sunshine the whole day long. Very quietly celebrated in Ellenville. Just the march of Ward Post, G. A. R., with Sons of Veterans, Boy Scouts and the martial music to Faintekill Cemetery, decorating the soldiers' graves with flowers and a handsome flag in a bronze staff, the return to the Post rooms, where the surviving members enjoyed as is the custom a general pleasant intercourse with each other. Each year the ranks are smaller but the hearts of those left just as strong and full of love for the stars and the stripes.

A very excellent program has been arranged for the evening to be spent at the Ver Nooy mansion at Napanocho Tuesday evening next. The program, under the direction of Nurse Miss Catherine Mae Lellich, who has done so much for Red Cross in the town of Wawarsing. The proceeds of this affair will be used for purchasing supplies for the Napanocho Red Cross. An additional attraction will be a sergeant and several members from Company M, Kingston, who are to tell the men present the requirements in the army of the United States and are to remain for the colonial ball. The program for entertainment:

Overture—Democracy's Dream Napanocho Orchestra.
Violin, Rev. Sciple; cornet, Mr. Herd; cello, Irving E. Garmani; flute, Mr. Cleveland; pianist, Mrs. Herd; drums, Mr. Crawford.
General Chorus—Star Spangled Banner.
Address of Welcome Rev. Sciple
A Song of Revolution Master Thayer.
History of the Ver Nooy Mansion Hon. Thomas E. Benedict.
Vocal Duet—Mr. Vernon Misses Duvall, Whiteley.
Poets and Saddles Orchestra
Recall Solo Mrs. Thayer
Address—Recruit Sergeant Co. M, Kingston.
America General Chorus
Colonial ball. Our parade. Grand march. Minuet in costume. Norbury waltzer. Mrs. Cunningham. Earle. Thompson. Miss Carver. Robert. Thompson. Miss Doyle. Horace Eaton. Mrs. Ketcham. Entertainment starts at 8:15.

Mrs. Myron C. Wood was called to New York by the serious illness of her son, Burton Wood.
Miss Denman of the electric works in El and under the care of a trained nurse.
Mrs. Charles Hinman has been quite ill but is reported better.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cox have returned from their trip to the coast, where they visited at San Obispo, Calif., for several weeks.
A number of visitors were in town on Memorial Day for decorating the graves of relatives and friends. Included among them were Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord B. Marshall and sisters from Walden, Miss Carrie Evans of Middletown, and Newton B. Elting of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Clark D. Bunting was called to Syracuse by the illness of her sister, Miss May Peaker, a student at Syracuse University.
Mrs. W. L. Wolf is visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson, in Brooklyn.
Robert Graham of New York spent Memorial Day with friends in Ellenville.
Silas Johns of Poughkeepsie is the new clerk in the Mutual drug store.
Harold Patterson is back at the old place for the summer, clerk in Patterson and Schoonmaker's drug store. All friends are glad to see Harold, who has spent the past year at Columbia University in the department of pharmacy.

Edgar M. Marshall purchased a fine monument of Ryan & Wells the past week and had it placed with handsome markers in memory of his father and mother. Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall, in Faintekill cemetery for Memorial Day.
Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Snyder of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., have been visiting Ellenville relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Newburgh spent Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Boyce.
Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carver have been visiting their son, Richard, in New York.
In the races at Goshen on Wednesday Simon Kushner, well known horseman of Napanocho and Ellenville, captured second money. In another class S. S. Shurter captured fourth. The races were said to have been good.

The Home Department of the Reformed Church Sunday school will have charge of the work at the Red Cross rooms Saturday afternoon.
Dennis Flives, a New York telegrapher, is visiting his brother, who operates the Press linotype machine.

Supt. Biddle Transferred.
In compliance with telegraphic instructions Colonel John Biddle has been relieved from duty as superintendent of the United States Military Academy and assigned to command the Sixth Regiment of Engineers, now being formed. Colonel Biddle has left West Point for Washington. Col. Biddle has been superintendent of the Military Academy since July 1, 1916. Until a new appointment has been made, Colonel Guy V. Henry, commandant of cadets, will be acting superintendent.

YOUR COMMERCIAL SIGNAL CORPS

In that great industrial army that is rapidly mobilizing for war service, the Bell System serves in the Signal Corps

ITS WORK is to keep open the lines of telephonic communication so vital to the National Defense and to provide dependable service for use in mobilizing the commercial resources of the country.

It is prepared for these duties. It carries thirty million telephone messages daily.

ITS EQUIPMENT includes a billion dollar plant; five thousand four hundred telephone exchanges; twenty million miles of wire; ten million telephones.

ITS ORGANIZATION consists of one hundred and eighty thousand trained and capable workers, imbued with a sense of responsibility and with a will to serve loyally and efficiently.

This company is taking every precaution to keep its part of the commercial Signal Corps work of the Nation up to the highest possible point of efficiency.

You can help by taking good care of your switchboards and telephone instruments, by avoiding unnecessary "curiosity" calls, and by cooperating with the operator under all conditions.

INSTRUCTIONS IN TWELVE LANGUAGES

State's Inventory of Population to be Taken June 11-25 and Will Furnish Valuable Data as to Resources in Man-Power Behind the Lines.

Albany, N. Y., June 1.—General instructions for answering questions to be asked the people of the state during the two weeks from June 11 to June 25 when the state census and inventory of military resources is to be taken, have been mailed from the census headquarters in Albany and will be posted throughout the state in twelve languages.

"The entire census form should be read through completely before any of the questions are answered," the instruction sheet says. "If the person enumerated lacks the information to enable him to answer one or more of the questions specifically, he should answer to the best of his ability or write 'Do not know,' in the space provided for the answer."

When the 5,600,000 answer sheets have been tabulated the state authorities will know all that is necessary from a military point of view concerning the men and women of the state, their capabilities, and their property that might be used for war. In some quarters there has been criticism of the fact that no man or woman more than fifty years of age is to be asked to make a statement on the ownership of automobiles and auto trucks, vans, power boats, wagons, wireless outfits, draft and saddle horses, and mules. The reason given by those in charge of the census, however, is that most of this property is owned by people more than fifty years old who would volunteer it in time of need, and that therefore there was no need of including everyone over the age of fifty in the census just to find out something that can be obtained in other ways. The rules point out that in answering these questions the husband must be careful not to list property owned by his wife.

Much importance is to be attached to answers to the question, "Can you operate an automobile, a power boat, a telegraph instrument, a stationary steam engine, a motorcycle, an aeroplane, a wireless outfit, a steam locomotive?"

"Answer 'yes' or 'no' to each question," the rules say. "Answer 'yes' only if you can operate any of the foregoing alone and without assistance."

The questions also will bring out whether the persons answering have ever been employed as a shipbuilder, and in what capacity; whether the person is a licensed pilot, or a navigator.

"In what country were you born?" is one of the questions, and the instructions for answering say:

"Give name of country as existing previous to the present war, as 'Belgium,' 'France,' 'Spain.' If the country of your birth has well recognized subdivisions, give both country and subdivision, as 'Great Britain—Ireland,' or 'Canada—Newfoundland.' Do not give continent, as South America or Africa. If born in the United States answer 'U. S.'"

The instruction sheet contains carefully worked out definitions of citizenship, and shows that answers in the question, "Are you a citizen of the United States?" must be either "yes" or "no."

"You are a citizen of the United States if:

"Born in the United States (Alaska and Hawaii included) and not subject to any foreign power, or

"If born out of the United States of a father who at the time was a United States citizen and had at some time resided in the United States, or

"If born out of the United States of alien parents provided that your father or surviving parent was naturalized before you became twenty-one years of age and provided that you began to reside permanently in the United States before you were twenty-one years of age."

The question sheet will bring out whether the citizen is such by birth or naturalization, and if not a citizen whether he had taken out first papers, and of what country he is a citizen.

"Are you married?" is a question to be answered as follows, according to the instructions: Answer either "yes" or "no." If widower answer "no." If divorced answer "divorced." If divorced and remarried answer only "yes."

"Is your wife living?" is to be answered as follows: "Answer either 'yes' or 'no.' If divorced and wife living answer 'yes.' If you have answered 'no' to preceding question (are you married?) draw a line through space provided for answer."

"How many persons, including only mother, father, wife or child, sister or brother under twelve years of age are dependent upon you for their entire support?" is to be answered like this: "Give briefly relationship of such persons, as 'wife,' 'sister,' 'two children under twelve years,' but only in case such persons are wholly dependent upon you for their entire support. Children, sisters or brothers may be listed as dependent only if under twelve years of age. Consider your answer carefully. Neither overlook your duty to your dependents because of your desire to serve, nor hide behind them unless they are in truth wholly dependent upon you for support. Where both the father and mother contribute to the support of dependent children, such dependent children must be divided between the two and must not be duplicated. If no one is wholly dependent upon you answer 'none.'"

"Do you claim exemption from military service?" is a question to be answered either "yes" or "no," but nurse.

the next question, "If so upon what grounds?" has these instructions: "If you answered 'no' to question 28 (exemption question) draw a line through space provided for answer, otherwise give as briefly as possible the reason which in your opinion entitles you to exemption, as 'religious scruples,' 'alien,' or any physical disability, past or present, or serious disease which you have had. Be clear and specific, as 'defective eyesight,' or 'loss of arm.'"

For those who admit they want to join some military organizations, there are questions under which they can say if they want to get in the army or navy, the National Guard or naval militia, or whatever branch of service they desire, as "wireless telegraphy," "quartermaster corps," "aviation corps," but on this the rule says "only if you believe you have special abilities for such service."

WOODSTOCK'S OBSERVANCE.
Roger Longhran Orator at Memorial Day Exercises.

Woodstock, June 1.—A large audience assembled at the Reformed Church on Memorial Day to listen to the impressive address given by Roger Longhran of Kingston. Much enthusiasm was shown and the meeting was seemingly deeply impressed by the intense spirit of patriotism which Mr. Longhran endeavored so successfully to instill. Not for many a day has so interesting and at the same time so earnest a speaker as Mr. Longhran visited Woodstock and it is to be regretted that there are not more young men of his stamp in this time of national stress.

Although the inclemency of the weather prevented the preparation during the past week of the elaborate musical program usually rendered, many of the old national and patriotic hymns were sung by the choir and audience in a spirited way, and as H. R. Smith remarked, seemed to show more of the memorial spirit than newer compositions as they brought back to the mind of many the memories of the past.

The services were under the direction of H. R. Smith of New York, who was one of the two veterans of the Civil War who were present. Mr. Smith is well known here and has been summering in Woodstock some years past. He is a veteran of the Civil War, having seen many months of active service. The program was as follows:

Singing—Coronation (3 verses) ... Choir and Audience
Reading Scripture, Rev. Mr. Sherman
Prayer, Rev. Mr. Brink
Singing—Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean ... Choir and Audience
Recitation—Battle Hymn of the Republic (with chorus) ... Miss D. Johnston.
Recitation ... Miss D. Johnston
Address, Roger Longhran, of Kingston.

Singing—Battle Cry of Freedom ... Choir and Audience
Singing—America ... Choir and Audience

PLATTEKILL.
Plattekill, June 1.—A wedding will be solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Birdsall, Saturday evening, at 6 o'clock, June 2, when their youngest daughter, Miss Irene Birdsall will be married to Samuel Andrews of Walden, N. Y.

Miss Birdsall is considered as one of Plattekill's most popular young ladies, generally taking an active part in social and church doings. Therefore the young couple are tendered the best wishes of happiness and prosperity by the residents of this village.

A woman's Christian Temperance Union of Plattekill will hold a meeting with the New Hurley Union in the Sunday school room of the M. E. Church, Friday afternoon, June 1, to consult plans concerning the convention to be held in the Methodist Church here in September. A report of the convention held at Clintondale will be given. An interesting meeting is expected and a full membership attendance is desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler and daughter were visitors in New Paltz last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conine and family from Newburgh were visitors in this place Sunday.

Miss Tillie Nabor is visiting her sister, Mrs. Nelson Yeager at Maybrook, N. Y.

Miss Susie Foster of Newburgh spent Sunday at her home here. Extensive repairs are being made in the creamery, by A. D. Wager.

Charles Fowler was a visitor at Walden Sunday.

Frank G. Terwilliger, employed as lawyer to a prominent New York firm in New York city, visited his relatives here this week.

J. Walton Brown spent a few days the past week in New York city. Edna Conine visited relatives at Newburgh the latter part of last week.

Ira Tompkins is learning to drive his new fire-passenger Ford car. Apparently farm life didn't agree with Mr. and Mrs. Scandell of Newburgh, who made the brief stay of a week on M. A. Gerow's farm where they were employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cor. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Minard and daughter were out of town visitors Sunday.

FLATBUSH.
Flatbush, June 1.—Miss Rachel Osterhoudt spent a few days in Kingston and Katrine recently. Mrs. Abigail Osterhoudt and Mrs. Harold Osterhoudt have returned from Union Hill, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller and Mrs. William Kierstead were Sunday guests at the home of Frank Osterhoudt last week.

JANITORS URGED TO TAKE EXTRA CARE

Owing to the number of incendiary fires which have occurred in the city within the past few days the board of fire commissioners have decided to send out one of the members of the paid department to the public places, stores, factories and office buildings in the city and urge the janitors, caretakers and occupants to take special care to see that every entrance to their buildings is closed and locked at night before leaving the premises. The fire commissioners will ask the property owners to take special care in looking over their buildings before closing time and see that no plans have been made to fire the buildings. Janitors, watchmen and caretakers are asked by the board to make special efforts to protect their property.

A member of the paid fire department will be sent out to make a personal appeal to property owners to take all precautions to protect their property and help detect the person who has been responsible for the several fires which have occurred within the past few weeks.

COMMUNITY PAY-UP WEEK--JUNE 4 to 9

Keep Business Going --- Keep Money in Circulation

Money Has No Real Value Until Its Buying Power is Established By Use

First of all, let us say that there is going to be more money in the United States of America than ever before. Think of spending SEVEN BILLION DOLLARS in this country for food stuffs and equipment for the army. Think of the thousands upon thousands of men and women who are to be employed raising food stuffs and turning out the products of the factories.

Pay-Up Week Has Been Arranged to Keep Prices Down by Keeping Money in Circulation

You are urged to "Do Your Bit" for Kingston by joining heartily in the spirit of "Pay-Up Week"—an event planned for the mutual benefit of all—the object of which is the squaring of all accounts with trades-people during the week of June 4th.

YOU CAN HELP and you can be helped if you will pay up during this week.

Let's Pass Prosperity Around

You Can Do Your Bit

YOUR COUNTRY CALLS YOU—but the call to all of you is not a call to arms.

To some the part of duty is to stay at home.

What is the duty of you who must stay at home? What can you do to back the men who are fighting that your home may be secure?

How Can You Serve Your Country?

The needs of the men who are fighting for YOU call for vast funds. Ships must be built. Munitions furnished. Your army and navy must be clothed and fed. It is for YOU the boys in khaki will soon be fighting.

Your Funds Only Can Supply This Equipment

TODAY! TODAY! TODAY!

Will you do your bit, and pay $2 as the first installment on a $100 bond of YOUR COUNTRY, or $1 on a $50 bond? These bonds bear interest, are free of all tax, and are the safest investment in the world. Make these easy payments for fifty weeks and we will deliver your bond to you right here at this bank.

Father Lange Gives Address on Work With Boys.

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Rondout Presbyterian Church Father Lange of the Church of the Holy Cross gave an interesting address on "Constructive Work With Boys." The speaker showed that the only logical and efficient plan for boys' work in the city was to center all the boys' activities in the boy's department of the Y. M. C. A.

No work with boys that intended to divide the boys up in the different churches to which they happened to belong deserved the support of the community.

Father Lange closed with a strong appeal to everybody to support the work in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., particularly by paying memberships for boys who could not themselves afford to pay for it.

The big congregation all were in favor of Father Lange's plan.

Several other churches in the city have extended invitations to Father Lange to speak to their congregations on the same subject.

Wide Awake Eskimos.

The Eskimos are rapidly learning the value of money. The day has long gone by when they would give a polar bear skin or a bale of furskins for a fishhook. They now know the value of their furs and bring them to the best markets.—Argonaut.

A String to Them.

Mrs. Flatbush—What became of that string of pearls your husband was going to give you? Mrs. Bensonhurst—Oh, he had hold of the string.—Yonkers Statesman.

Her Own Idea.

SAVING AND INVESTING FOR VICTORY AND LIBERTY!

LIBERTY LOAN OF 1917

It is the duty of every individual, both rich and poor, to subscribe to the Liberty Loan. Subscribe for yourself, your wife and your children. If you are an employer advise your employees to subscribe. Lend them the money if necessary, holding their bonds as security to the loan. Your country needs your help. If you cannot go to the firing line, let your dollars fight for you.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE BOND!

Not next month, nor next year. Your country needs the money NOW. Remember! Germany will not wait for your convenience. Also remember, if you do not exercise your privilege of lending your money to the United States as a means to victory, Germany may compel you to subscribe to a greater bond issue for the purpose of paying indemnity, which she will levy on the people of the United States if she ever gets a chance. If the war is not prosecuted vigorously by us, Germany may get that chance.

Germany is three thousand miles away. Our allies are keeping her there.

"WE MUST DO OUR BIT"

Subscribe your share to the Liberty Loan—show the rest of the country that KINGSTON is alive to the gravity of the situation. United States Government Bonds are the safest investment on earth.

By subscribing to the Loan you can help your country and make a splendid investment at the same time.

BUY NOW!

Do not delay your subscription until you have the money. Two per cent only is payable when you subscribe. The balance is payable as follows:

JUNE 28, 18 Per Cent

JULY 30, 20 Per Cent

AUGUST 15, 30 Per Cent

AUGUST 30, 30 Per Cent

For example, one taking a $100 Bond would pay $2 down. On June 28th, he must pay $18 additional; July 30th, $20 more; on August 15th, $30; and on August 30th, $30. This proportion applies to the payment for bonds in any amount.

If the above dates do not fit the convenience of the subscribers, we will loan the money for any payment after the first one, and the subscribers may repay such loans at their convenience.

Liberty Loan Bonds are to be dated June 15, 1917, and will mature on June 15, 1947, but may be paid if the Government so desires, fifteen years after date of issue. They bear interest at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum. Coupon Bonds are issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. Bonds registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $50,000 and $100,000.

DAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, June 1.—For the first time in many months fighting was reported from practically all the battle fronts today.

The keenest and most widespread interest was directed towards the eastern front where, after a long lull, Russian artillery has opened up and is now directing a violent cannonade against the German positions, particularly on the Riga line and along the Dvina river. A big explosion was seen to occur behind the German lines shortly after the bombardment was begun. Aerial activity has reached a stage of great intensity, the airmen on both sides delivering continuous attacks against lines of communication, cantonments, ammunition depots and bodies of marching troops.

In Albania, on the Balkan front, where the Italians have undertaken a new offensive, fresh progress was reported between Avalona and Monastir.

Both the British and French have extended their lines on the western front. South of Chevaux the French captured a German post and some prisoners. The Germans renewed their efforts against the French in Champagne, but the attacking waves were rolled back or crumpled up beneath the French artillery fire.

West of Cherley, on the Arras front, the British renewed their pressure last night, making an advance. Northeast of Loos and near Ploegstraet successful raids were made upon the German lines.

A fresh series of attacks have been commenced against the new positions of the Austro-Hungarians in the Austro-Italian war theater but over a considerable portion of the front fog and rain have hindered operations.

Taking Stock.

By Porter Emerson Browne of the Vigilantes.

What would you think of John Wannamaker if he went on year in and year out doing business without ever stopping to take stock of what he had in his stores?

The answer is easy. You'd think he ought to have a guardian appointed—that is, if, after attempting to run his business in such an idiotic way as that, he had anything left worth appointing a guardian to take care of, which he undoubtedly wouldn't.

And yet that is precisely the way the various states of the Union have been conducting their business during the past hundred odd years. And the only reason they haven't gone busted years ago is that they've had no competition. You've lived in the United States you had to do business with the United States or refrain from doing business at all.

All of which is the simplest explanation of the state census about to be taken. New York is going to take stock. She's going to find out what she's got in the shop from the attic to the basement. She's going to find out how many of her sales force are efficient and how many inefficient. She's going to find out how much she's got in the storerooms and how much on the counters and how much in the show window.

In other words, New York is going to take account of stock and get down to business.

And since the principal stock of a state is the citizenry thereof that's where she's going to start in.

She wants to know who you are, and what you are, and where you live, and what you're good for. If you're a plow she doesn't want you in the jewelry counter. Contrarywise, if you are a diamond tiara she doesn't want you among the plumber's supplies.

And the funny part of it all is that that which New York and the other states of the Union are about to do is something that has been done in Germany for the last fifty years. Germany runs her store on a business basis. Germany would no more think of going without a national census than without a national government.

And if in this war we expect to compete with Germany we've got to begin to adopt a few of her efficient methods. Otherwise we might as well shut up shop and go into bankruptcy as a ten-cents-on-the-dollar failure right now.

New York is going to find out what she's got on hand, both in citizens and materials, and she's going to find out now. So if you love your country it's up to you to help out in every way you know how. And if, on the other hand, you love somebody's else country it's up to you to get aboard just as hard, because if you don't do so willingly you'll have it to do anyway. New York isn't fooling in this thing. She means business.

So be ready for the census when it comes.

DO YOUR BIT!

The Crisis.

The attraction at the Kingston Opera House today and tomorrow is a picturization of Winston Churchill's great American story "The Crisis." The play follows very closely the story and brings to being all of the excellent characters in the book. "The Crisis" is truly American and should appeal strongly to every American. It deals with the struggles and strife of this country during the Civil War period. Many of the big battle scenes in the picture were made on historic battle grounds of the south using some of the old fortifications just as they were at the time of the Civil War. The entire National Guard of Mississippi were employed in the making of some of the big scenes.

Huge Rattlesnake.

The largest specimen of the rattlesnake in any collection in the world is said to be that at the state museum at Raleigh, N. C. It measures 6 feet 11 inches in length. It weighs 7 pounds 11 ounces. There are 12 rattles.

PRESIDENT WARNS AGAINST EVASION

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—President Wilson today issued a warning to any and all persons attempting to evade registration as provided for by the act of congress and the proclamation of the president.

"Such persons are guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than one year and shall thereupon be duly registered," the warning said.

The warning was issued with particular reference to persons withdrawing from the jurisdiction of the United States during the period of registration.

Meanwhile Attorney General Gregory was preparing an appeal to all citizens to form vigilance committees to see that registration is properly carried out in all parts of the nation. Citizens will be invited by the attorney general to co-operate with district attorneys, United States marshals, sheriffs and municipal authorities and if necessary to form posses to see that there is no disorder and that the intent of the registration act is not defeated on June 5.

The warning was as follows:

"By the President of the United States of America:

"A Proclamation.

"Whereas, the president, in a proclamation issued on the eighteenth day of May, 1917, set apart the fifth day of June, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. for the registration of all male persons between the ages of twenty-one and thirty, both inclusive, who may be subject to registration in accordance with the act of congress, approved May 18, 1917, authorizing the president to increase temporarily the military establishment of the United States.

Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby give warning that all persons subject to registration under the provisions of the said act of congress and the proclamation of the president who withdraw from the jurisdiction of the United States for the purpose of evading such registration expose themselves upon their return to the jurisdiction of the United States to prosecution for such evasion of registration pursuant to section five of the act of congress, approved May 18, 1917, which enacts that 'any person who shall willfully fail or refuse to present himself for registration or to submit thereto as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction in a district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year and shall thereupon be duly registered.'

"In witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and of the Independence of the United States of America one hundred and forty-first.

"WOODROW WILSON,
"Robert Lansing, Secretary of State."

NAVAL RESERVES FILLED.
So Two of Kingston's Young Men Join Company M.

Friday Henry Avnet and Joseph L. Byer went to New York city to try the examination for admittance to the United States Naval Reserve, but were informed that the ranks were filled to the required strength and no more applications would be received.

The young men immediately started for home and reached Kingston shortly after 8 o'clock and a few minutes later were taking the physical examination for admittance to Company M, which they passed successfully.

The naval reserve has six of Kingston's young men enlisted with it. The men are Robert G. Groves, Andrew J. Murphy, Jr., Lester Edmundson, Edward Stock, Roger Loughran and Arthur Tongue.

The First American Indians.

According to Keith, the American Indian in all his varieties, is a descendant from the primitive Mongolian type. There is a theory advanced by Payne that in some remote period the progenitor of the Indian came to this continent from Asia over a bridge of land that existed in prehistoric times when the Behring sea now is. Another theory, championed by Dawkins and Brinton, assumes that the originals of our native stocks came from Europe, probably by way of Iceland.

New York's Rate Too High.

Newburgh applied to the New York City Board of Water Supply for permission to tap the Catskill aqueduct and augment its own water supply in Little Pond. For the five million gallons needed for the pond the cost would be $65,000, this figure being prohibitive as Newburgh now pays half the rate quoted by the larger city.

They Are No Bar.

Though a man have a glass eye, a wooden leg and an artificial arm, he can run an automobile if it belongs to him, a magistrate complained in deprecating New York state law.

Overlooked Element.

AMERICANS IN FOREIGN LEGION

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Paris, May 15. (By mail to New York), June 1.—Americans in the French Foreign Legion have contributed a glorious page to the history of their country while fighting in the service of France.

While the French government allows statistics and names to be published in connection with the Legion Corps and the Americans therein, nothing is ever said about the Foreign Legion nor are the figures as to its personnel ever given out.

The Foreign Legion is a polyglot body of warriors known the world over. No questions are ever asked a man when he makes application to join it. Nor is any information forthcoming should the applicant for membership inquire about the Legion.

The Legion has distinguished itself time and again in this conflict and citizens of the United States played a prominent part in some of the bloody fighting with the Germans.

Corporal John Barrett, of Boston, was one of the first to enlist in the Legion at the beginning of the war. He died a victim of German treachery on April 17 during the second day of the French offensive in Champagne.

When the order came to charge Barrett was among the first to go over the parapet. The Legionnaires stormed forward amidst a storm of shot and shell. But the ranks never faltered and through the bursting bombs, the crashing shells, the sweeping machine gun sprays and the shrapnel they steadily advanced until they were in the Germans' first line trenches.

Barrett fell with a bullet through his leg. Just as he fell the Germans swept from their second line trenches in a savage counter attack.

The Legionnaires were forced to give up their newly won ground and retire to their old position. From their trenches comrades of the fallen American saw him picked up and carried by the Germans into their second line.

Three hours later, the Legion, reinforced by another regiment, again attacked. This time the Germans were not only swept from their first line trenches, but the second line as well.

In the second line trenches the body of Barrett was found. A bayonet had been plunged through his heart.

Only the day before Barrett had written a post card to a friend in Paris, Mrs. Parley Weeks, of Boston. Upon it he had written:

"Thanks for your charming letter. Tomorrow, don't forget to buy the papers. Unfortunately I have nothing of material value to tell you but if my affection could be transformed into dollars you would have a lovely pension for life. Yours, Jack."

The "tomorrow" mentioned by Barrett was in reference to the date of the attack. Two weeks before he had been recalled from Paris where he was on leave because of the forthcoming offensive.

It was on this last furlough that some friends presented Barrett with a wrist watch. In thanking them he said:

"I guess about the only reason a soldier should have for a wrist watch is to tell what hour he was killed."

Before his tragic death Barrett had written a letter to Mrs. Weeks describing a previous attack.

"It was hell," wrote the American. "I was almost tempted to 'stumble' accidentally into one of the shell holes that furnish protection while the wave of men moves on. It was my corporal's stripes that prevented me and gave me the courage to stumble along, although our boys were being mowed down by the most terrible machine gun fire I have ever seen."

Although only 22 years of age and a newcomer in the ranks of the Legion Barrett was made a corporal after six months' service. Some of the older members were disgruntled to think that a "youngster" would have authority over them out at the first sign of insubordination Barrett peeled off his coat and gave the man a terrible thrashing.

"If I am a corporal I am going to be a corporal," he exclaimed. A little wooden cross back of the French lines in Champagne where the great guns are never quiet and where battle surges ceaselessly marks the last resting place of Corporal John Barrett, American.

Names Colored in the Navy. Rudyard Kipling said in an article the other day, "The lower deck . . . always has the proper names for things," and how true that is we are inclined to forget. "Dreadnaught" as a noun of multitude was a lower deck colloquialism, and so was "Ironclad."

When these vessels were first constructed they were variously designated as "iron," "steel" or "armor plated," and even about "plated" there was a difference of opinion, for "cased," "clothed" and "sided" served at various times as alternatives.

In fact, these ships' official designation until 1896 was "Iron plated." "Battleship" is a nautical curmudgeon of the official "line of battle ship."

MOTION PICTURES IN CHINA

There Were Lively Times For the Men Who Introduced Them.

At the end of the Russo-Japanese war, says the Los Angeles Times, Mr. Brodsky, a native of Odessa, Russia, came to San Francisco. After the great San Francisco fire he left the city with an old motion picture machine and forty or fifty reels of "junk" film. With that he sailed for the Orient. The motion picture was unknown in China when he reached there with his paraphernalia, and he ran into many dangers in showing his wares. To the natives his camera and projecting machine was a "magic box."

He had to pay his first audience to enter his theater, which, by the way, was only a tent. In that way he finally won the crowd.

Matters were progressing well when Brodsky one day put on a wild west film in which a band of cowboys appeared on the screen, charging straight at the spectators and firing revolvers. The moment the audience saw those shooting cowboys bearing down upon them they rushed, panic-stricken, from the tent theater, cutting their way out with knives.

After that the cautious natives were slow to come back. But finally Brodsky hit upon the plan of having a few Chinese come and examine the apparation, pass their hands over the blank sheet that was the screen and assure themselves that there was nothing to hurt them.

Gradually he established picture theaters throughout the country until now there are eighty of them.

Once he was thrown into a Chinese jail, but finally made his escape after getting the whole populace into the jail to view his motion pictures. At another place he was to have been executed as a "devil," but he frightened the people and made them change their minds by telling them that he could easily put them on the screen and make them work there forever.

COTTON CROP CONDITION POOR

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—The condition of the south's cotton crop today was reported by the department of agriculture to be the poorest in years and nearly ten points under the ten-year average. On May 25 the condition was 69.5 per cent of normal.

Cold weather in April and May killed much cotton outright and damaged a wide acreage. Much replanting has been necessitated and the crop is reported as stunted in nearly all sections. The present condition indicated the crop will be three weeks late, the report says. The May 25 condition compares with 77.5 per cent a year ago and a ten year average of 79.1 per cent.

In many sections the staple has been attacked by lice and weevils. Despite a short labor supply farmers are keeping cultivation up to normal. The principal labor shortage is east of the Mississippi river. While officials generally do not regard a poor cotton crop as so serious as a poor food crop would be, it is admitted that unless there is phenomenal improvement in the cotton during the summer the price of the staple will remain at an unusually high figure.

A birthday social for children and adults will be held in Trinity parish house, Barclay Heights, this evening, Friday.

Infantile paralysis has made its appearance in Saugerties. The dreaded disease is in the family of John Langkan on Barclay Heights, a son, 12 years old, being the afflicted.

ANOTHER STEAMER SUNK BY SUBMARINE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—The steamer "H. J. Brown" was sunk by a submarine, which sailed from this port May 4 with a cargo for Liverpool, has been sunk by a German submarine, the Robert Ramsay Company, agents of the steamer at this port, announced today.

Captain Hignett and all hands were saved. In the crew was one American, N. D. Denthorpe.

Tuberculosis Hospital Gifts.

There are now 22 patients at the Tuberculosis Hospital, leaving but one unoccupied bed. In fact the hospital has been unusually full all spring. Among the patients there is now one little girl about 4 years old, and the gift of toys was indeed welcomed by this little "shut in" girl. There is a constant need of old muslin, linen or new cheese cloth, and the management of the hospital hopes that among all the needs of this sort at present the hospital will not be forgotten. Gifts for the month of May were: Flowers from Mrs. J. Allan Wood; 50 cents from a friend; one half dozen sheets and one half dozen pillow slips from A. Friend; magazines from the Stuyvesant Barber Shop; a rocking chair for the Ella Dedrick Room, from the Queen Esther Circle of the St. James M. E. Church; cut flowers from Miss Compton, old linen and children's toys from Mrs. Heggen; old linen from the Circles of Mercy.

Home and Country Club.

The Junior Order Home and Country Club, Inc. has filed a certificate of incorporation with the county clerk. The company's principal office is located in the town of New Paltz. The purpose of the company is to buy, sell and work farm lands, raise vegetables and carry on a general farming business. The capital stock is $2,000. Edgar H. Eckert of Lloyd, Louis E. NEW YORK PORT CLOSED TWO HOURS

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, June 1.—After Secretary Daniels had declared that no orders to close the port of New York had been sent from here, it was admitted through the Committee on Public Information this afternoon that the port was closed for two hours this morning.

It was stated that upon orders from the New York navy yard to the customs officials ships clearing after 9 o'clock were notified that they would probably be held up at the harbor entrance. The port was then closed until 11 o'clock.

Official information on the incident reached Washington through the treasury department but it was made clear that the local naval authorities at New York acted on their own initiative, and no explanation of the move was forthcoming.

Patriotic Church Service.

All members of Pratt Post, G. A. R., Tappan Camp, S. O. V., and Ladies' Auxiliaries No. 43, are invited to attend services in the Church of the Holy Spirit on Sunday evening, June 3, at which time a flag will be presented to the church.

CITIZENS URGED TO AID POLICE

Any One Seeing prowlers Around Any Building Should Call Police—Phone Call is 1671—Their Names Will Not be Made Public.

As Kingston has over one hundred miles of street it is manifestly impossible for the police department with its small number of patrolmen to adequately patrol the various sections of the city, and for that reason the police department through The Freeman has issued a request that all citizens who see any suspicious persons prowling or loitering in the vicinity of public or private property should immediately call up the police department and notify them of the fact. The telephone call is 1671.

The department now has an automobile patrol in charge of an efficient driver and within a very few minutes after receiving the phone call can be on the job. In order that citizens may feel free to call up the police department the names will not be made public.

With several incendiary fires and the latest attempt to burn the Church of the Comforter and also the several robberies the police department should receive the aid of every citizen in the city. It is a patriotic duty in these days of war to help suppress crime and to do everything possible to lead to the prompt arrest of the firebug and thieves.

YOUR SAVINGS CAN HELP.

Liberty Loan Bond Not Meant for Banks.

There seems to be some misapprehension as to the meaning of the figures which were given out as showing the allotment of the $2,000,000,000 loan among the various parts of the country based on the relative amounts of bank resources. Some people have understood this to imply that all the loan was being allotted to the banks and that individuals were not expected or desired to subscribe. This is, of course, far from being the case. The individual subscribers are expected to absorb a very large share of the loan, but inasmuch as the wealth of any community, whether the property of an individual, corporation or bank, is to a certain extent indicated by the bank deposits of the section, the division of the loan was made by comparing the bank resources of the twelve Federal Reserve Districts.

The point has been brought out several times that this loan must be absorbed through current savings. The authorities hope that subscriptions from individuals will be sufficient to absorb both the money on hand for investment and the savings of the next few months. The banks can thus play a very important part in carrying their customers until the savings accumulated to liquidate the temporary advances made.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, June 1.—The musical given by Miss Bailey, assisted by Miss Kuriz, reader, at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, a benefit for Ellenville Red Cross, under the direction of the Ladies' Aid of the Reformed Church, was well attended and everyone enjoyed the singing of Miss Bailey, who was at her best. Miss Kuriz was very pleasing to the audience. It was her first appearance in Ellenville, but she gave her readings with a charm and skill that could not help but arouse the appreciation and sympathetic response of the audience. She was truly an impersonator whose living imagination and convincing personality makes the characters she portrays live again for the auditors. Of particular mention was "Aging Uncle Joe," by Mayme Betsey. The very clever accompanist was also well received.

Memorial Day of 1917 will long be remembered as one of the most beautiful of days—clear, bright sunshine the whole day long. Very quietly celebrated in Ellenville. Just the march of Ward Post, G. A. R., with Sons of Veterans, Boy Scouts and the martial music to Fantinekl Cemetery, decorating the soldiers' graves with flowers and a handsome flag in a bronze staff, the return to the Post rooms, where the surviving members enjoyed as is the custom a dinner provided by the sons and a general pleasant intercourse with each other. Each year the ranks are smaller but the hearts of those left just as strong and full of love for the stars and the stripes.

A very excellent program has been arranged for the evening to be spent at the Ver Nooy mansion at Napanoch Tuesday evening, next. The colonial ball, under the direction of Nurse Miss Catherine Mac Lellish, who has done so much for Red Cross in the town of Wawarsing. The proceeds of this affair will be used for purchasing supplies for the Napanoch Red Cross. An additional attraction will be a sergeant and several members from Company M, Kingston, who are to tell the men present the requirements in the army of the United States and are to remain for the colonial ball. The program for entertainment:

Overture—"Democracy's Dream".... Napanoch Orchestra.
Violin, Rev. Seiple; cornet, Mr. Herd; cello, Irving E. Garman; flute, Mr. Clevoth; pianist, Mrs. Herd; drums, Mr. Crawford.
General Chorus—"Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Charles Hinman, has been quite ill but is reported better.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cox have returned from their trip to the coast, where they visited at San Obispo, Calif., for several weeks.

A number of visitors were in town on Memorial Day for decorating the graves of relatives and friends. Included among them were Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord B. Marshall and sisters from Walden, Miss Carrie Evans of Middletown, and Newton B. Elting of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Clark D. Bunling was called to Syracuse by the illness of her sister, Miss May Peaker, a student at Syracuse University.

Mrs. W. L. Wolf is visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson, in Brooklyn.

Robert Graham of New York spent Memorial Day with friends in Ellenville.

Silas Johns of Poughkeepsie is the new clerk in the Mutual drug store.

Harold Patterson is back at the old place for the summer, clerk in Patterson and Schoonmaker's drug store. All friends are glad to see Harold, who has spent the past year at Columbia University in the department of pharmacy.

Edgar M. Marshall purchased a fine monument of Ryan & Wells the past week and had it placed with handsome markers in memory of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall, in Fantinekl cemetery for Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Snyder of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., have been visiting Ellenville relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green of Newburgh spent Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Boree.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Carver have been visiting their son, Richard, in New York.

In the races at Goshen on Wednesday Simon Kushner, well known horseman of Napanoch and Ellenville, captured second money. In another class S. S. Shurtler captured fourth. The races were said to have been good.

The Home Department of the Reformed Church Sunday school will have charge of the work at the Red Cross rooms Saturday afternoon.

Dennis Fives, a New York telegrapher, is visiting his brother, who operates the Press linotype machine.

Supt. Biddle Transferred.

In compliance with telegraphic instructions Colonel John Biddle has been relieved from duty as superintendent of the United States Military Academy and assigned to command the Sixth Regiment of Engineers, now being formed. Colonel Biddle has left West Point for Washington.

Col. Biddle has been appointed adjutant of the Military Academy since July 1, 1915. Until a new appointment has been made, Colonel Guy V. Henry, commandant of cadets, will be acting superintendent.

YOUR COMMERCIAL SIGNAL CORPS

JANITORS URGED TO TAKE EXTRA CARE

Owing to the number of incendiary fires which have occurred in the city within the past few days the board of fire commissioners have decided to send out one of the members of the paid department to the public places stores, factories and office buildings in the city and urge the janitors caretakers and occupants to take special care to see that every entrance to their buildings is closed and locked at night before leaving the premises. The fire commissioners will ask the property owners to take special care in looking over their buildings before closing time and see that no plans have been made to fire the buildings. Janitors, watchmen and caretakers are asked by the board to make special efforts to protect their property.

A member of the paid fire department will be sent out to make a personal appeal to property owners to take all precautions to protect their property and help detect the person who has been responsible for the several fires which have occurred within the past few weeks.

MRS. RENA MOONEY ON TRIAL FOR LIFE
Mrs. Rena Mooney, wife of Thomas Mooney, already sentenced to death for the bomb murders on Preparedness Day in San Francisco, is herself on trial today charged with complicity in the crime. Mrs. Mooney is the only woman among the nine defendants charged with the death of the nine persons killed in a bomb war in the preparedness parade.

No one knows no pause in progress in development and stretches her out on all inaction—Goelint.

COMMUNITY PAY-UP WEEK--JUNE 4 to 9

Keep Business Going -- Keep Money in Circulation

Money Has No Real Value Until Its Buying Power is Established By Use

First of all, let us say that there is going to be more money in the United States of America than ever before. Think of spending SEVEN BILLION DOLLARS in this country for food stuffs and equipment for the army. Think of the thousands upon thousands of men and women who are to be employed raising food stuffs and turning out the products of the factories.

Pay-Up Week Has Been Arranged to Keep Prices Down by Keeping Money in Circulation

You are urged to "Do Your Bit" for Kingston by joining heartily in the spirit of "Pay-Up Week"—an event planned for the mutual benefit of all—the object of which is the squaring of all accounts with trades-people during the week of June 4th.

YOU CAN HELP and you can be helped if you will pay up during this week.

Let's Pass Prosperity Around

You Can Do Your Bit

YOUR COUNTRY CALLS YOU—but the call to all of you is not a call to arms.

To some the part of duty is to stay at home.

What is the duty of you who must stay at home? What can you do to back the men who are fighting that your home may be secure?

How Can You Serve Your Country?

The needs of the men who are fighting for YOU call for vast funds. Ships must be built. Munitions furnished. Your army and navy must be clothed and fed. It is for YOU the boys in khaki will soon be fighting.

Your Funds Only Can Supply This Equipment

TODAY! TODAY! TODAY!

Will you do your bit, and pay $2 as the first installment on a $100 bond of YOUR COUNTRY, or $1 on a $50 bond? These bonds bear interest, are free of all tax, and are the safest investment in the world. Make these easy payments for fifty weeks and we will deliver your bond to you right here at this bank.

Father Lange Gives Address on Work With Boys

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Rondout Presbyterian Church Father Lange of the Church of the Holy Cross gave an interesting address on "Constructive Work With Boys." The speaker showed that the only logical and efficient plan for boys' work in the city was to enter all the boys' activities in the boy's department of the Y. M. C. A.

No work with boys that intended to divide the boys up in the different churches to which they happened to belong deserved the support of the community.

Father Lange closed with a strong appeal to everybody to support the work in the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. particularly by paying memberships for boys who could not themselves afford to pay for it.

The big congregation all were in favor of Father Lange's plan.

Several other churches in the city have extended invitations to Father Lange to speak to their congregations on the same subject.

Wide Awake Eskimos

The Eskimos are rapidly learning the value of money. The day has long gone by when they would give a polar bear skin or a bale of furskins for a fishhook. They now know the value of their furs and bring them to the best markets—Argosaut.

A String to Them

Mrs. Flatbush: What became of that string of pearls your husband was going to give you? Mrs. Bensonhurst: Oh, he had sold of the string—Yonkers Statesman.

Her Own Idea

His wife is a woman of one idea. That so. Yes, whenever he starts to do anything she has the idea that he is doing it wrong.

SAVING AND INVESTING FOR VICTORY AND LIBERTY!

LIBERTY LOAN OF 1917

It is the duty of every individual, both rich and poor, to subscribe to the Liberty Loan. Subscribe for yourself, your wife and your children. If you are an employer advise your employees to subscribe. Lend them the money if necessary, holding their bonds as security to the loan. Your country needs your help. If you cannot go to the firing line, let your dollars fight for you.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE BOND!

Not next month, nor next year. Your country needs the money NOW. Remember! Germany will not wait for your convenience. Also remember, if you do not exercise your privilege of lending your money to the United States as a means to victory, Germany may compel you to subscribe to a greater bond issue for the purpose of paying indemnity, which she will levy on the people of the United States if she ever gets a chance. If the war is not prosecuted vigorously by us, Germany may get that chance. Germany is three thousand miles away. Our allies are keeping her there.

"WE MUST DO OUR BIT"

Subscribe your share to the Liberty Loan—show the rest of the country that KINGSTON is alive to the gravity of the situation. United States Government Bonds are the safest investment on earth.

By subscribing to the Loan you can help your country and make a splendid investment at the same time.

BUY NOW!

Do not delay your subscription until you have the money. Two per cent only is payable when you subscribe. The balance is payable as follows:

JUNE 28, 18 Per Cent JULY 30, 20 Per Cent AUGUST 15, 30 Per Cent AUGUST 30, 30 Per Cent

For example, one taking a $100 Bond would pay $2 down. On June 28th, he must pay $18 additional; July 30th, $20 more; on August 15th, $30; and on August 30th, $30. This proportion applies to the payment for bonds in any amount.

If the above dates do not fit the convenience of the subscribers, we will loan the money for any payment after the first one, and the subscribers may repay such loans at their convenience.

Liberty Loan Bonds are to be dated June 15, 1917, and will mature on June 15, 1947, but may be paid if the Government so desires, fifteen years after date of issue. They bear interest at the rate of 3½ per cent per annum. Coupon Bonds are issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. Bonds registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $50,000 and $100,000.

DAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, June 1.—For the first time in many months fighting was reported from practically all the battle fronts today.

The keenest and most widespread interest was directed towards the eastern front where, after a long lull, Russian artillery has opened up and is now directing a violent cannonade against the German positions, particularly on the Rika line and along the Dvina river. A big explosion was seen to occur behind the German lines shortly after the bombardment was begun. Aerial activity has reached a stage of great intensity, the airmen on both sides delivering continuous attacks against lines of communication, cantonments, ammunition depots and bodies of marching troops.

In Albania, on the Balkan front, where the Italians have undertaken a new offensive, fresh progress was reported between Avlona and Monastir.

Both the British and French have extended their lines on the western front. South of Chateau-Thierry the French captured a German post and some prisoners. The Germans renewed their efforts against the French in Champagne, but the attacking waves were rolled back or crumpled up beneath the French artillery fire.

West of Cherbourg, on the Arras front, the British renewed their pressure last night, making an advance. Northeast of Loos and near Moezestraet successful raids were made upon the German lines.

A fresh series of attacks have been commenced against the new positions of the Austro-Hungarians in the Austro-Italian war theater but over a considerable portion of the front fog and rain have hindered operations.

Taking Stock.

By Porter Emerson Browne of the Vigilantes.

What would you think of John Wainwright if he went on year in and year out doing business without ever stopping to take stock of what he had in his stores?

The answer is easy. You'd think he ought to have a guardian appointed—that is, if, after attempting to run his business in such an idiotic way as that, he had anything left worth appointing a guardian to take care of, which he undoubtedly wouldn't.

And yet that is precisely the way the various states of the Union have been conducting their business during the past hundred odd years. And the only reason they haven't gone bust years ago is that they've had no competition. If you lived in the United States you had to do business with the United States or refrain from doing business at all.

All of which is the simplest explanation of the state census about to be taken. New York is going to take stock. She's going to find out what she's got in the shop from the attic to the basement. She's going to find out how many of her sales force are efficient and how many inefficient. She's going to find out how much she's got in the storerooms and how much on the counters and how much in the show window.

In other words, New York is going to take account of stock and get down to business.

And since the principal stock of a state is the citizenry thereof that's where she's going to start in. She wants to know who you are, and what you are and where you live, and what you're good for. If you're a plow she doesn't want you in the jewelry counter. Contrarywise, if you are a diamond she doesn't want you among the plumber's supplies.

And the funny part of it all is that that which New York and the other states of the Union are about to do is something that has been done in Germany for the last fifty years. Germany runs her government on a business basis. Germans would not think of going without a national census, but without a national government.

And if in this war we expect to compete with Germany we've got to begin to adopt a few of her efficient methods. Otherwise we might as well shut up shop and go into bankruptcy as a ten-cent-on-the-dollar failure right now.

New York is going to find out what she's got on hand, both in citizens and materials, and she's going to find out now. So if you love your country it's up to you to help out in every way you know how. And if, on the other hand, you love somebody's else country it's up to you to get ahead just as hard, because if you don't do so willingly you'll have to do it anyway. New York isn't fooling in this thing. She means business.

So be ready for the census when it comes.

TO YOUR BIT!

The Crisis.

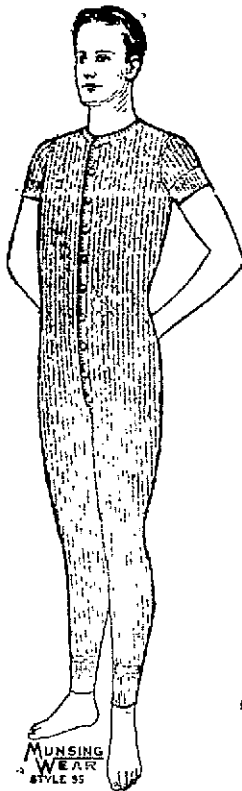

The attraction at the Kingston Opera House today and tomorrow is a picture of Winston Churchill's great American story "The Crisis." The play follows very closely the story and brings to being all of the excellent characters in the book. "The Crisis" is truly American and should appeal strongly to every American. It deals with the struggles and strife of this country during the Civil War period. Many of the big battle scenes in the picture were made on historic battle grounds of the south using some of the old fortifications just as they were at the time of the Civil War. The entire National Guard of Mississippi were employed in the making of some of the big scenes.

Hugo Rattlesnake.

The largest specimen of the rattlesnake in any collection in the world is said to be that at the state museum at Raleigh, N. C. It measures 6 feet 11 inches in length. It weighs 7 pounds 11 ounces. There are 12 rattles.

PRESIDENT WARNS AGAINST EVASION

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, June 1.—President Wilson today issued a warning to any and all persons attempting to evade registration as provided for by the act of congress and the proclamation of the president.

"Such persons are guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be, punished by imprisonment of not more than one year and shall thereupon be duly registered," the warning said.

The warning was issued with particular reference to persons withdrawing from the jurisdiction of the United States during the period of registration.

Meanwhile Attorney General Gregory was preparing an appeal to all citizens to form vigilance committees to see that registration is properly carried out in all parts of the nation. Citizens will be invited by the attorney general to co-operate with district attorneys, United States marshals, sheriffs and municipal authorities and if necessary to form posses to see that there is no disorder and that the intent of the registration act is not defeated on June 5.

The warning was as follows:
"By the President of the United States of America:

"Whereas, the president, in a proclamation issued on the eighteenth day of May, 1917, set apart the fifth day of June, between the hours of 1 a. m. and 3 p. m., for the registration of all male persons between the ages of twenty-one and thirty, both inclusive, who may be subject to registration in accordance with the act of congress, approved May 18, 1917, authorizing the president to increase temporarily the military establishment of the United States;

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do hereby give warning that all persons subject to registration under the provisions of the said act of congress and the proclamation of the president who withdraw from the jurisdiction of the United States for the purpose of evading such registration expose themselves upon their return to the jurisdiction of the United States to prosecution for such evasion, of registration pursuant to section five of the act of congress, approved May 18, 1917, which enacts that any person who shall willfully fail or refuse to present himself for registration or to submit thereto, as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction in a district court of the United States, having jurisdiction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year and shall thereupon be duly registered."

"In witness thereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and of the independence of the United States of America one hundred and forty-first.

WOODROW WILSON.
"Robert Lansing, Secretary of State."

NAVAL RESERVES FILLED.

So Two of Kingston's Young Men Join Company M.

Friday Henry Avnet and Joseph L. Dyer went to New York city to try the examination for admittance to the United States Naval Reserve, but were informed that the ranks were filled to the required strength and no more applications would be received. The young men immediately started for home and reached Kingston shortly after 8 o'clock and a few minutes later were taking the physical examination for admittance to Company M, which they passed successfully. The naval reserve has six of Kingston's young men enlisted with it. The men are Robert G. Groves, Andrew J. Murphy, Jr., Lester Elmentorf, Edward Stock, Roger Loughran and Arthur Tongue.

The First American Indians.
According to Keith, the American Indian in all his varieties, is a descendant from the primitive Mongolian type. There is a theory advanced by Payne that in some remote period the progenitor of the Indian came to this continent from Asia over a bridge of land that existed in prehistoric times when the Behring sea now is. Another theory, championed by Dawkins and Brinon, assumes that the originals of our native stocks came from Europe, probably by way of Iceland.

New York's Rate Too High.

Newburgh applied to the New York City Board of Water Supply for permission to tap the Catskill aqueduct and augment its own water supply in Little Pond. For the five million gallons needed for the pond the cost would be $65,000, this figure being prohibitive as Newburgh now pays half the rate quoted by the larger city.

They Are No Bar.

Though a man have a glass eye, a wooden leg and an artificial arm, he can run an automobile if it belongs to him, a magistrate complained in deprecating New York state law.

Overlooked Element.

"The three R's of writing poetry," began the fellow who knows almost everything, "are Rhyme, Rhythm and Reason, and of the three the last is most neglected."

KIDNAPPED CHILD NOT RECOVERED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Springfield, Mo., June 1.—Haggard and worn from a night spent in an open roadster, J. Holland Keet, wealthy Springfield banker, returned to his home today. His baby son, Lloyd Keet, 14 months old, was still in the hands of the kidnappers.

Throughout the night the banker had driven through rain and hail to obey a demand contained in a letter that he deliver $5,000 in cash somewhere on a lonely country road and receive word where his kidnapped baby could be found.

Against the expressed desire of Keet, a squad of automobiles followed in his wake as he journeyed along the route prescribed in the letter. Scores of homes in Springfield showed lights all night long, as men and women and children remained awake, waiting for word that baby Keet had been found.

Crowds remained in the downtown section of the city until dawn, ready on instant notice to form searching parties as soon as the banker reported that he had delivered the $5,000 ransom. These arrangements were made over the protest of Mr. and Mrs. Keet whose only concern was the safety of their baby stolen from his nursery on Wednesday night while his nurse and another child slept.

Mrs. Keet today was in a state verging on collapse. Her spirits were buoyed through the night by the hope that her husband would return with their baby. But when he returned with the ransom money and without having met the kidnappers, her grief was beyond tears.

The sorrow that hangs over the Keet mansion has spread to every home in Springfield.

The New Paltz Alumni will hold a reunion Saturday evening, June 23, at 7:30 o'clock in the gymnasium of the normal school building. There will be addresses, business meeting, refreshments, dancing and a general good time. Expense only $1.50. Write to Mrs. Florence Smith Ostrander about it at once or before June 15, and be sure to be present.

Mrs. Delia Boice, who has been conducting such successful classes in aesthetic dancing at St. Mary's School Hall, will resume her classes on Saturday evening of this week. These classes will continue into the summer.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Confirmation services will be held at St. Peter's Church on Tuesday, June 12.

The members of St. Peter's Holy Name Society will meet this evening at 9 o'clock at the home of their late brother, Vinzenz Dittmar, to recite the rosary.

The regular business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Wurts Street Baptist Church will be held in the chapel this evening at 7:45 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Publication of the unfavorable crop condition report made the cotton exchange a scene of excitement. July futures advanced nearly $1 on the bale to $21.85 cents a pound, a record price.

Money loaning at four per cent. Resumption of the Russian offensive was an important incentive for heavy buying of all the leading stocks during the afternoon. Steel Common had a quick advance to 130 and gains of 1 point were made in many other industrials. American Smelting continued prominent, advancing to 109 1/2, a gain of four points.

The announcement of the sinking of three American ships was followed by sharp declines. Steel selling at 128 1/4, off 1 1/4 from the opening. During the first hour sales were approximately 370,000 shares.

SHIP SOLACE.
United States Senator William M. Calder of New York, who read to the United States Senate a "round robin" signed by thirty invalid sailors aboard the United States hospital ship Solace, alleging ill-treatment and unsanitary conditions on that vessel. Among the charges made by the men were that, while ill with high fevers, they were compelled to carry their own baggage on board the ship, that drinking water was very scarce and always lukewarm, dishes used by the men sick with measles were washed in the lavatory where vessels were standing around with germs of scarlet fever and mumps; all food was served to men on one platter.

STOCKS DROP AND CLIMB BACK AGAIN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, June 1.—The sinking of three American ships and the temporary closing of the port of New York today caused a break of 1 to 6 points on the stock exchange.

Wall Street was flooded with bear made rumors and a heavy selling movement developed, only to be met by a buying power which within an hour forced prices back practically to their former level.

U. S. Steel, selling ex-dividend, dropped from 130 to 126, climbing back to 129 1/4 shortly after noon. Industrial Alcohol broke six points to 130 1/2, before news of the reopening of the port brought a turn upward.

Publication of the unfavorable crop condition report made the cotton exchange a scene of excitement. July futures advanced nearly $1 on the bale to $21.85 cents a pound, a record price.

Money loaning at four per cent. Resumption of the Russian offensive was an important incentive for heavy buying of all the leading stocks during the afternoon. OLIVEIRA.
Oliveira June 1.—Mrs. I. Burdick, of Brooklyn is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Andrews in this village.

John R. Maden has moved to Big Indian.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ackerman of Brooklyn spent Decoration Day at the Maple View House.

Miss Ella Owen has returned from Halesville, where for the past few weeks she has been staying with her niece, Mrs. Rebecca Sanford.

Mrs. Emma Dutcher and Mrs. E. Chase were in Kingston Wednesday.

From now until the first of October Oliveira will have two mails daily arriving at 10 o'clock and 5:15 o'clock p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio E. Dutcher were called to Nantuxent this week on account of the death of Mrs. Dutcher's father, Everett Denker, which occurred May 25. The funeral was held at Grahamsville this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Buley and children of Kingston arrived at the home of Mrs. Buley's mother, Mrs. V. Knight, on Thursday for a short visit.

Child's Elbow Fractured.
Joseph Quest aged 3 years, son of T. J. Quest of 75 O'Neil street, fell from a chair this morning severely injuring his arm. He was taken to the office of Dr. H. P. Van Wageningen on John street where an X-Ray examination showed a severe fracture of the elbow. Dr. William J. O'Leary was called and attended to the injury.

Your Own Weight.
Dr. Harvey G. Beck of the University of Maryland told the Los Angeles County Medical association a simple way to calculate what one ought to weigh. First, he said, put down 110, then subtract 3 feet from one's height and multiply the number of inches that remain by 34. Add this product to the original 110 and the sum is one's ideal weight.

When Watch Resembled an Apple.
Although some of the early watches were very small in circumference, they were thick and the front and back fairly bulged so that they were more the shape of an apple than a watch, which they really resembled today. The watch-like watch is an invention of very recent times and the process of thinning it is even now going on. The obvious advantage of the thin watch is that it can be placed in the belt

AMERICA FIRST IS FOOD SLOGAN

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—"America first"—this is the slogan adopted by the food administration.

American people must be taken care of first before there is any shipment of foodstuffs to the allies, according to the plans now organized by the food administration, ready to go into effect when congress has acted on the food legislation.

The first steps of Herbert C. Hoover, food administrator, will be to take such action as to quell all discontent in the United States with food prices and the restrictions which must come. It is known that Mr. Hoover anticipated a normal consequence of the food administration, considerable unrest among the American people, until they become accustomed to the regulations.

There must be no food rioting or disorders because of the food restrictions. This word has gone forth to all the agents of the food administration. It is the purpose of the administration to aid the people in America in meeting the situation, by giving them absolute confidence that their needs are being taken care of first before those of the allies.

With Americans taken care of, then the food administration will turn to our allies. There will be plenty of food to ration the allies, without a doubt, but the distribution of the food presents a considerable problem. There can be no competition between the allies for foodstuffs, the food administration has decreed. It is most probable as a consequence of this decision, that a standard price will be fixed on all food exports in order that no nation may outbid another. The matter of shipment will then rest in the hands of the state department in accordance with the agreements it has with the allied nations relative to the pooling of shipping space.

Cotton at Record Price.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, June 1.—July cotton sold at the record price of 22.17 cents a pound on the cotton exchange this afternoon. The advance, which amounted to $2 on the bale over yesterday's close, was based on the very bearish government cotton report.

Army Enlistments.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—Enlistments for the army yesterday broke all records when 3,867 men were enrolled. The total enlistments since April 1 have now reached 92,686 men. New York led with 383, Pennsylvania second with 336, and Illinois with 216 was third.

SPARKS FROM THE WAR ANVIL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, June 1.—Attorney General Gregory was preparing today to issue a statement denying charges that the wholesale arrests of opponents to the draft was in violation of constitutional guarantees of free speech.

Washington—The declaration by former Senator Works of California that "We dishonor ourselves by declaring war without adequate or reasonable cause," brought bitter denunciation from his former colleagues in the senate today.

Washington—"May I not send you personally my subscription to the Liberty Loan," said President Wilson in a letter to Secretary McAdoo, in which he enclosed a $10,000 check. The Liberty Loan publicity committee was planning to reproduce the check on advertising posters to encourage subscriptions.

Washington—Speeches in congress made prior to the passage of the conscription law, bitterly opposing the draft, are being sent out by tens of thousands under the individual congressional frank, the department of justice learned today. In every case a copy of Speaker Clark's address comparing a conscript to a convict is included.

Tokio.—A denial was issued here today of reports that Japan has sent troops to aid Russia.

London.—Reports from the Hague that the Germans anticipate an offensive drive by the Russians are contradicted by a dispatch from Petrograd to the Daily News today. According to this message the Germans are so confident that Russia's army is paralyzed that they have sent many big guns, including those from the fortresses of Ossovetz and Kovno to the western front. These fortresses were captured in the big drive led by von Hindenburg and von Mackensen.

Paris.—A cabinet conference was held today to discuss the labor situation and the advisability of granting passports to Socialists seeking to go to Stockholm to attend the International Socialist Peace Conference. Professional strike agitators are giving the government much trouble. A number of arrests have been made, among the prisoners being two Greeks, a Turk, two Swiss and a Roumanian. All were plentifully supplied with money.

New York.—The Brooklyn navy yard has had its first visitation of Teutonic "nightmares." It came in the form of German measles. Twenty bluejackets suffering from this form of disease have been removed to the Kingston Avenue Hospital for contagious diseases.

Washington—There was a net gain of 517 men in the navy yesterday, bringing the total enlistment up to 108,564.

London.—The full which had settled down over the British front in France was broken last night when the British attacked west of Chiegar, a slight gain was scored in the sector, the war office announced today. Successful raids and patrol encounters occurred elsewhere.

Amsterdam.—The peace speech of Emperor Charles I, the Austrian kaiser, was received with satisfaction in Germany according to a telegram from Berlin today. Especially pleasing was that section expressing the hope that the Allies would follow the example of Russia in modifying their war aims. While the emperor did not announce the detailed peace terms of the Central Powers, he made it plain that Austria-Hungary and Germany are prepared to enter into peace negotiations immediately if a conference can be arranged upon a satisfactory basis.

London.—Important changes are taking place in the personnel of the British government. Lord Cowdray has resigned as chairman of the Air Board, and the Daily News said today that Dr. Christopher Addison probably would soon resign as minister of munitions. The post of food controller is now vacant. Lord Devonport having resigned on account of ill health several days ago. It is reported in some circles that the portfolio of munitions minister may be given to Col. Winston Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty.

MARKET AND WAR BONDS.

Chamber of Commerce Action on Both Propositions.

A market committee of the Chamber of Commerce has organized with the election of John E. Kraft as chairman. Others on the committee are John F. Herbert, Selig Oppenheimer, A. D. Rose and Thomas Edmonston. A conference with farmers will follow an investigation of public markets in other cities. The report of the state conference of mayors on the feasibility of markets will be scrutinized by the committee. Secretary Canfield will attend the state conference of secretaries at Syracuse and will obtain some information as to market systems.

The defense committee of the chamber is agitating the distribution of Liberty Loan bonds among industrial concerns. In addition to the New York Telephone Company, the committee announces that the Ulster and Delaware railroad and the Cornell Steamboat Company are planning to arrange for purchases of bonds by such employees as desire same.

For Desecrating the Flag.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 1.—Gaston Fabbri, an alien Turk of 24th street, is under arrest here for desecration of the American flag. Charges were preferred by Monomed Syde, a naturalized Turk of Fair River, Mass., who told the police that Fabbri pulled a flag down in an up-river power plant, tore it into shreds and then spat on it. Fabbri will be given a hearing this afternoon.

CITIZENS URGED TO AID POLICE

Any One Seeing Provisions Around

Any Building Should Call Police—

Phone Call Is 1671—Their Names

Will Not Be Made Public.

As Kingston has over one hundred miles of street it is manifestly impossible for the police department with its small number of patrolmen to adequately patrol the various sections of the city, and for that reason the police department through The Freeman has issued a request that all citizens who see any suspicious persons provision or loitering in the vicinity of public or private property should immediately call up the police department and notify them of the fact.

The telephone call is 1671.

The department now has an automobile patrol in charge of an efficient driver and within a very few minutes after receiving the 'phone call can be on the job. In order that citizens may feel free to call up the police department, the names will not be made public.

With several incendiary fires and the latest attempt to burn the Church of the Comforter and also the several robberies the police department should receive the aid of every citizen in the city. It is a patriotic duty in these days of war to help suppress crime and to do everything possible to lead to the prompt arrest of the firebug and thieves.

YOUR SAVINGS CAN HELP.

Liberty Loan Bond Not Meant for Banks.

There seems to be some misapprehension as to the meaning of the figures which were given out as showing the amount of the $2,000,- 000,000 loan among the various parts of the country based on the relative amounts of bank resources.

Some people have understood this to imply that all the loan was being allotted to the banks and that individuals were not expected or desired to subscribe. This is, of course, far from being the case. The individual subscribers are expected to absorb a very large share of the loan, but inasmuch as the wealth of any community, whether the property of an individual, corporation or bank, is to a certain extent indicated by the bank deposits of the section the division of the loan was made by comparing the bank resources of the twelve

Federal Reserve Districts.

The point has been brought out several times that this loan must be absorbed through current savings.

The authorities hope that subscriptions from individuals will be sufficient to absorb both the money on hand for investment and the savings of the next few months. The banks can thus play a very important part in carrying their customers until the savings accumulated to liquidate the temporary advances made.
